(54) Title: METHOD FOR DEFINING CONTENT DOWNLOAD PARAMETERS WITH SIMPLE GESTURE

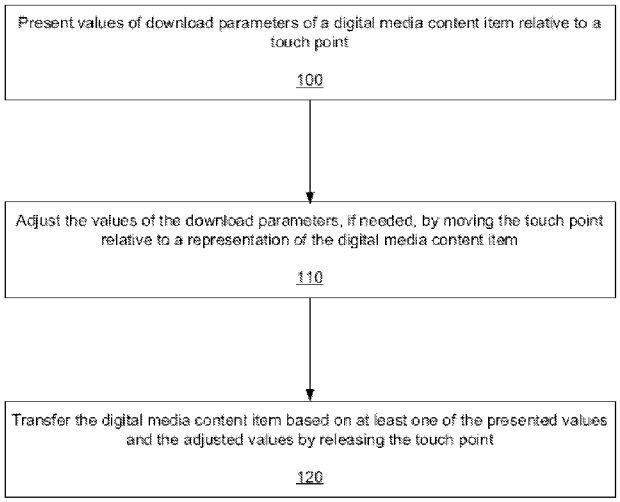

Figure 1

(57) Abstract: A system and method of defining download parameters for downloading a desired content itemis provided. A userpresented with content on a display for downloadingselects a desiredcontent itemto be downloaded by pointing to avisual thumbnail iconor representation of the desired content item.A download parameter interface is presented (e.g., overlaid on the icon) on the display. The user is then able to adjust one or more download parameter-sassociated withthe desired content item. Upon achieving the desired values for the one or more download parameters, the desired content item is processed in accordance withthe desired values, and is then presented to the user.
