Claim

(1) The use of a projector glass as a board for writing/display or as a teaching tool

(2) Use projector to convert/transform a projector glass into a white board; illuminating it with white light from the projector

(3) Using a projector glass as a reading/display board for trainer. The trainer would be able to read off the display material while facing learners without turning his/her back.