(4) The clean towel dispensing system in claim 1, 2 or 3, wherein:

It is used to improve the process of allowing customers perform loan of clean towels and return of soiled/used towels in a self-service manner, while at the same time, allowing owners of establishments limit access and maximum number of clean towels to customers

(5) A clean towel dispensing system, that do not have any down-time, even when replenishment of clean towels is taking place.

(6) A clean towel dispensing system, wherein:

(a) Every piece of clean towel within it is attached with a RFID Tag (or a plurality of RFID Tags).
(b) System only dispenses the requested number of clean towels that is requested by the customer (e.g. room guest of a hotel). It disallows access of other clean towels that customer did not request.
(c) System only allows customer access to his requested number of clean towels). It disallows access of other clean towels that customer did not request.

(7) A clean towel dispensing system in claim 6, wherein:

(a) System records all clean towels have been dispensed by each customer.

(8) A clean towel dispensing system in claim 6 or 7, wherein:

(a) System includes one or more RFID Readers within it to scan RFID Tags that are attached onto or into the clean towels

(9) A clean towel dispensing system in claim 6, 7 or 8, wherein:

(a) System includes one or more RFID Antennas within it to scan RFID Tags that are attached onto or into the clean towels