(54) Title: COSMETIC USE OF HOP AND ORNITHINE

(57) Abstract: A composition for use as cosmetic agent for enhancing breast growth and strengthening of the breast issue comprises at least hop and ornithine. Fennel or a fennel derivative such as fennel leaf or fennel seed is preferably further added thereto. The composition can also be applied as medication for suppressing and preventing benign cysts. The composition can be manufactured in convenient tablet form and be made up wholly of natural constituents. Ingestion of the composition for a period of a few months will in most cases provide the first result.
