ABSTRACT

The amazing Elixir Water of Life is a massage in a liquid tub installed with vibrators and underwater speakers that create harmless radio sonic waves through the medium of water penetrating through our body fluid to stimulate and soothe, revitalize and rejuvenate the body. The sonic waves synchronize to create a therapeutic hydro-massage that gently stimulate the body and the organs, relaxing and energizing the whole body, internally and externally but more importantly, helps in improving blood circulation through the stimulation of the organs and tissue, killing harmful bacteria and other parasitic organisms, and treating and healing various illnesses such as rheumatism, high-blood pressure, hypertension, aches and pains,etc. This system is a form of electro-acupuncture, played to the beat of your favourite music, with each beat being felt by the user in the very depths of their bodies, so their body feels energized and well-rested. Overall health is improved, promoting longevity.
