ORIENTED CONTACT LENS WITH BRIGHTLY COLORED SCLERA

Abstract

Oriented contact lenses have patterns in which the portion that substantially lies over the sclera when worn on-eye is brightly colored or tinted; the colored or tinted contact lenses can have colored or tinted central portions that enhance the iris when worn on-eye and limbal rings that enhance the limbus.

Figure. 1