Abstract

EXPANSE EXPOSURE, FULL CONCEALMENT

[Para 23] Many systems, such as Residential buildings require many complex living functions, not limiting to laundry drying, cooking ventilations, natural lighting. Prior Arts means cannot achieve sleek appearance, all rounds, like what commercial buildings could easily attain. Resulting in grave suffering spanning facing, living quality, efficiency, energy usage, lighting, ventilation, land usage, facing are inevitable.

This invention provides means of concealing from human vision on the appropriate location, while open generously exposure to sun light, other desired elements. With this invention, interior design, provision of utilities, heating, ventilation, air-conditioning, building design, town planning can attain higher efficiency, aesthetics therefore higher values, better energy efficiency.

In this invention, we clearly discover identify, define the definitive difference between desire external forces, undesirable effects, physical, virtual. People of this art can capitalize on this invention with quantifiable parameters, to have a full range of choices, to harness greater forces of nature and satisfy function, aesthetic demand by human nature.

(FIG 3)

162162

G00001