(54) Title: SYSTEMS, METHODS, AND APPARATUS FOR QUALITY OF SERVICE PROCESSING

(57) Abstract: A method of signal transmission according to one embodiment includes requesting a packet data serving node to filter a specified traffic flow from among a stream of packets. The method also includes requesting a radio access network to provide an indicated quality-of-service (QoS) treatment for the flow over a wireless air interface. The method further includes rescinding the request to filter or the request to provide a QoS treatment in response to a failure of the other request.
