
accepting a payment request submitted by a channel entrance page
S101
making a payment in accordance with the payment request and outputting a payment result
S102
identifying a distribution platform corresponding to the electronic tag in the payment request, and obtaining a payment result page template corresponding to the distribution platform
S103
generating a payment result page based on the obtained payment result page template and the payment result
S104
outputting the payment result page
S105

Figure 1

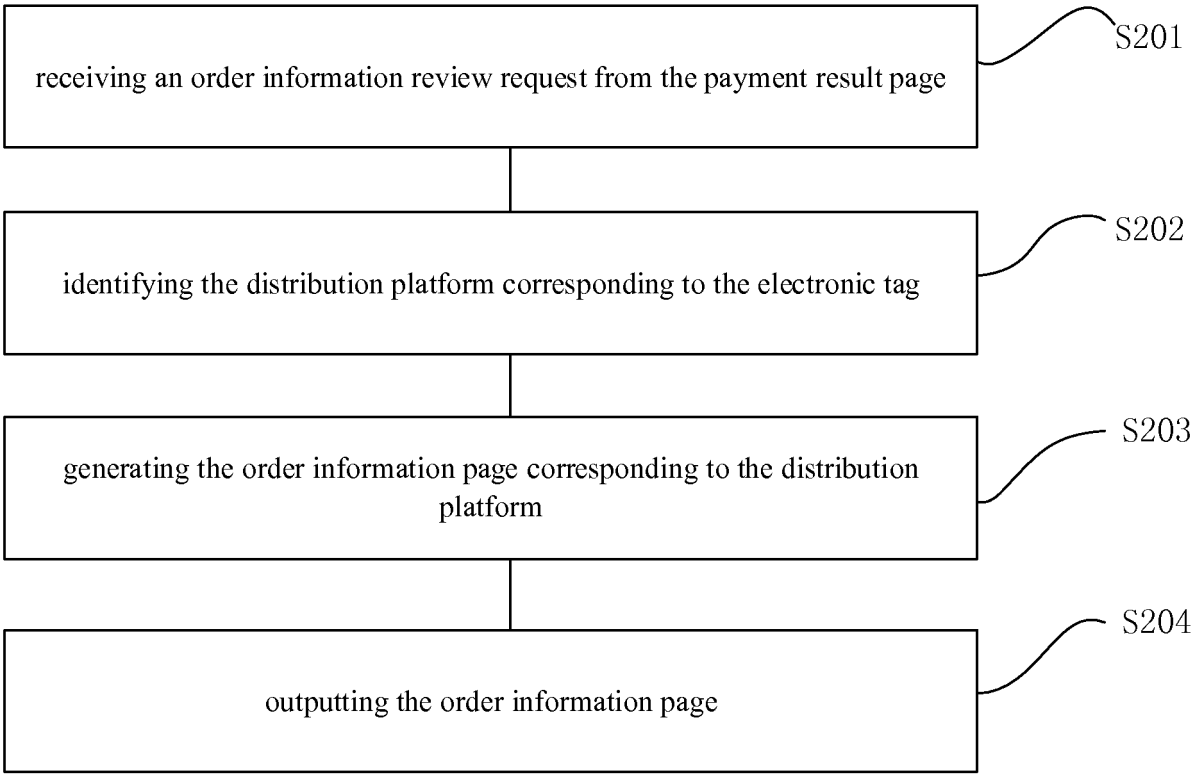

receiving an order information review request from the payment result page
S201
identifying the distribution platform corresponding to the electronic tag
S202
generating the order information page corresponding to the distribution platform
S203
outputting the order information page
S204

Figure 2

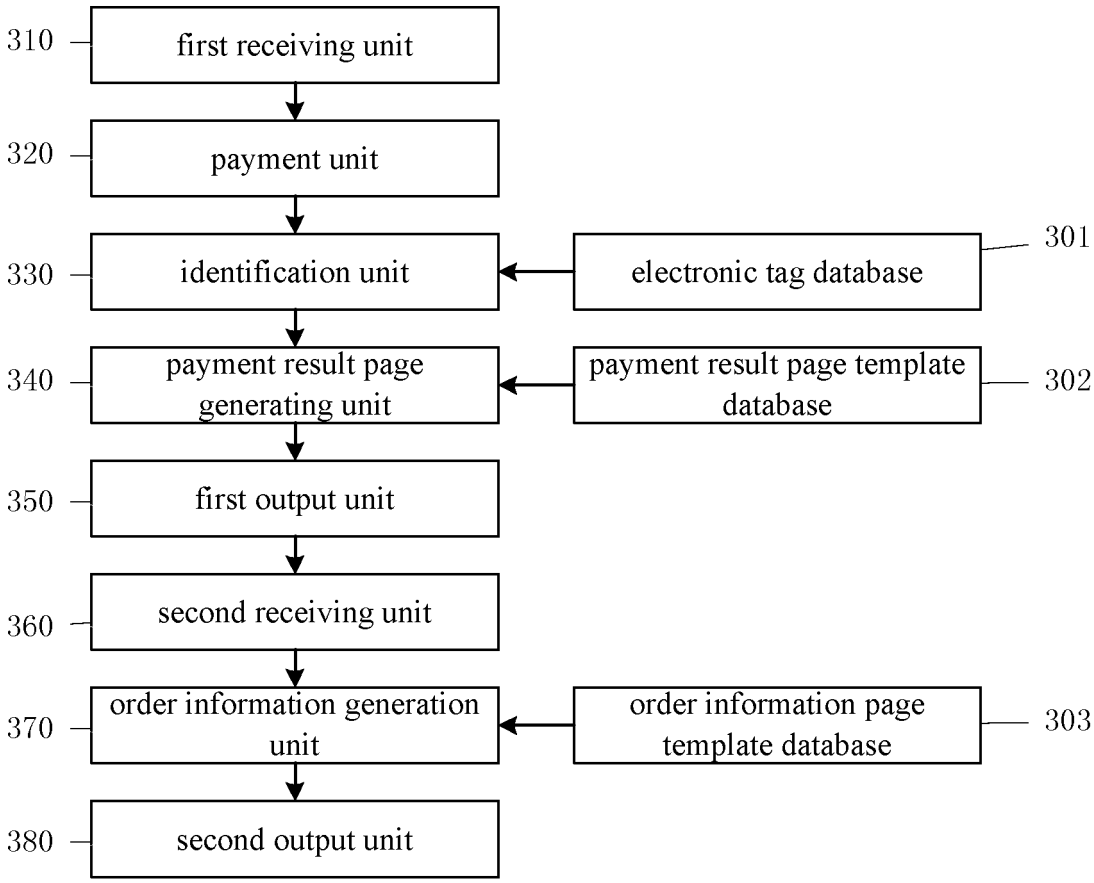

310
first receiving unit 320
payment unit
330
identification unit
electronic tag database
301
340
payment result page generating unit
payment result page template database 302
350
first output unit
360
second receiving unit 370
order information generation unit
order information page template database 303
380
second output unit

Figure 3