Abstract

PROCESS FOR INJECTING PARTICULATE MATERIAL INTO A FLUIDIZED BED REACTOR

Particulate material is fed downward to a fluidized bed reactor through a standpipe under conditions whereby the particulate material is in a packed bed mode. The process is particularly well adapted for feeding coke and titanium ore to a fluidized bed reactor wherein the ore is chlorinated to $TiCl_4$.

Figure 1