REPLACEMENT SHEET
04 SEP 2002

ABSTRACT

162162

A credit card transaction system that is used for contracts for various electronic-commerce services comprises a mobile station 100, a mobile telephone network 20, a mobile packet communication network 30, a CAT 40a, 40b, ... , a CAFIS network 50, a credit card company's server 60A, 60B, ... , and the Internet 70. A request from the mobile station 100 for a credit card contract is transmitted to any one of the credit card company's server 60A, 60B, ... through a gateway server 32; in a case where the contract is approved, credit card contract information is transmitted from any one of credit card company's server 60A, 60B, ... to the mobile station 100 through the gateway server 32, the credit card contract information being stored in the mobile station 100.

G00002