

162162

Abstract

G00002

Vehicle Security System

5

A vehicle is protected from theft by using a device to unlock and enable the vehicle to be driven. The device also enables the location of the vehicle to be monitored. The vehicle remains enabled as long as the device is detected by the vehicle to be within a certain vicinity of the vehicle.

10

Figure 2