

ABSTRACT

A spun-dyed meta-type wholly aromatic polyamide fiber with small discoloration and fading due to the light exposure, in which the content of the solvent remaining in the fiber is at a certain level or less. Specifically, a spun-dyed meta-type wholly aromatic polyamide fiber, in which the residual solvent content of the fiber is 0.1% by mass or less based on the whole mass of the fiber.