(54) Title: SYSTEM AND COMPUTER-IMPLEMENTED METHOD FOR FULFILLING AN ORDER REQUEST

FIG. 1

(57) Abstract: The present invention relates to a system and computer-implemented method for fulfilling an order request. The method includes receiving information regarding a transaction between a user and a merchant, and information regarding an error while processing the transaction. Further, based on a received assurance value from the merchant, requesting one or more entities for providing at least one of a partial or total of the assurance value. Furthermore, in response to the request, a contribution value is received from each of the one or more entities, where the contribution value is one of the partial or total of the assurance value. Finally, an assurance message is provided to the merchant indicating successful payment for fulfilling the order request of the user upon determining the contribution value received from the one or more entities is summing up to the assurance value.
