(54) Title: IMPROVED ORGANIC MATERIAL TREATMENT APPARATUS, SYSTEM AND METHOD

WO 02/20428 A1

(57) Abstract: The invention relates to a container, a system and an apparatus for the treatment of organic matter involving the use of worms to decompose organic material and produce castings. The container includes an inner housing, housing having walls with apertures, an in-feeding means, a collection means and a discharge means. The system is a plurality of such containers having a common organic matter delivery means and a common discharge means. The apparatus comprises a pair of wheel assemblies which can be mounted to opposing ends of a container, a framework for supporting the wheel assemblies and a drive means to rotate the container.
