

Corporate Voting System

A system for registering participants and providing printed ballots for votes on issues at a corporate event. The ballots being printed based upon voting instructions with indicia indicating a vote in accordance with the voting instructions. Identifiers on the ballots may be used to invalidate
5 votes from unauthorized participants and for use in fast and accurate tallying of the votes, determining results, and issuing reports of the vote.

Figure 3