(54) Title: TREATED FILLERS, COMPOSITIONS CONTAINING SAME, AND ARTICLES PREPARED THEREFROM

(57) Abstract: The present invention is directed to a process for producing treated filler including (a) treating a slurry of untreated filler which has not been previously dried, with a treating composition including an organosilane material of specified structure (I); and (b) drying the treated filler slurry. The present invention also is directed to treated filler prepared by the process, as well as rubber compounding compositions and tires including the treated filler.
