CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

1. In a method consisting of treating an individual who needs to avoid driving impairment or to operate machinery during a post-sleep period following administration of a medicine to improve sleep, post-sleep performance, or both, the improvement comprising:

use of 20 mg of tasimelteon administered before bedtime as said medicine, wherein the individual suffers from jet lag disorder.