

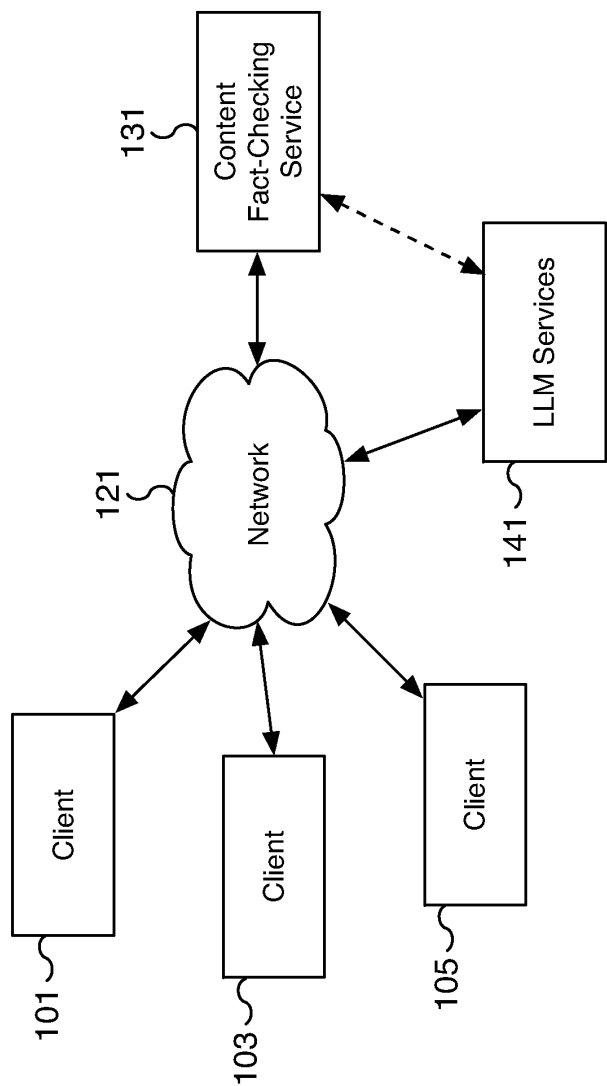

FIG. 1

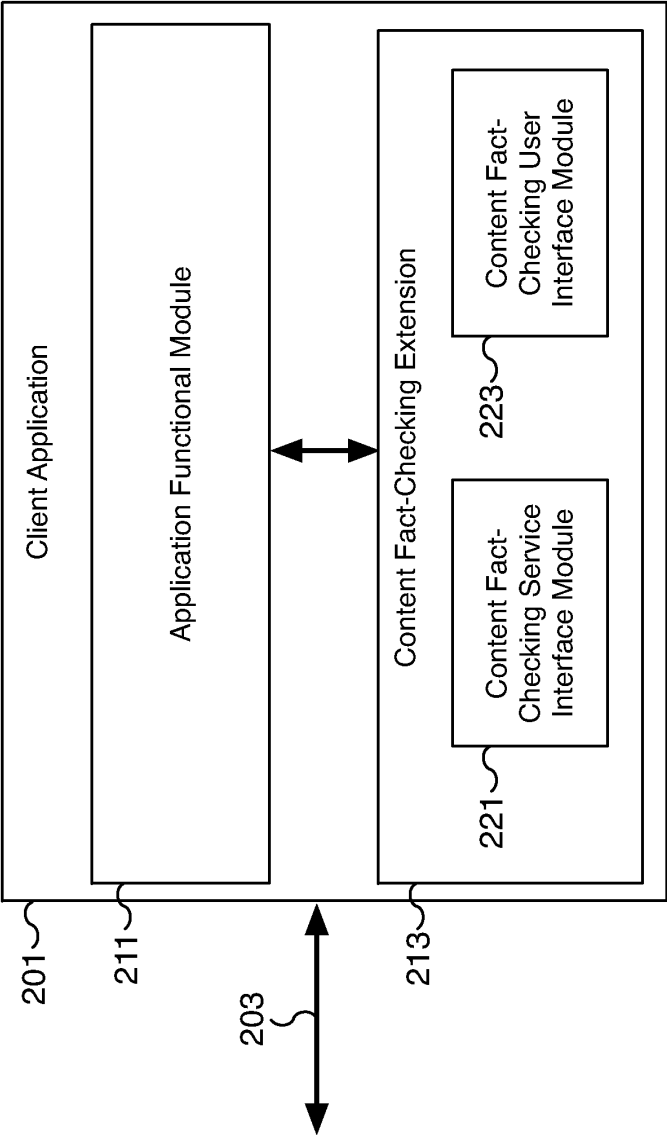

FIG. 2

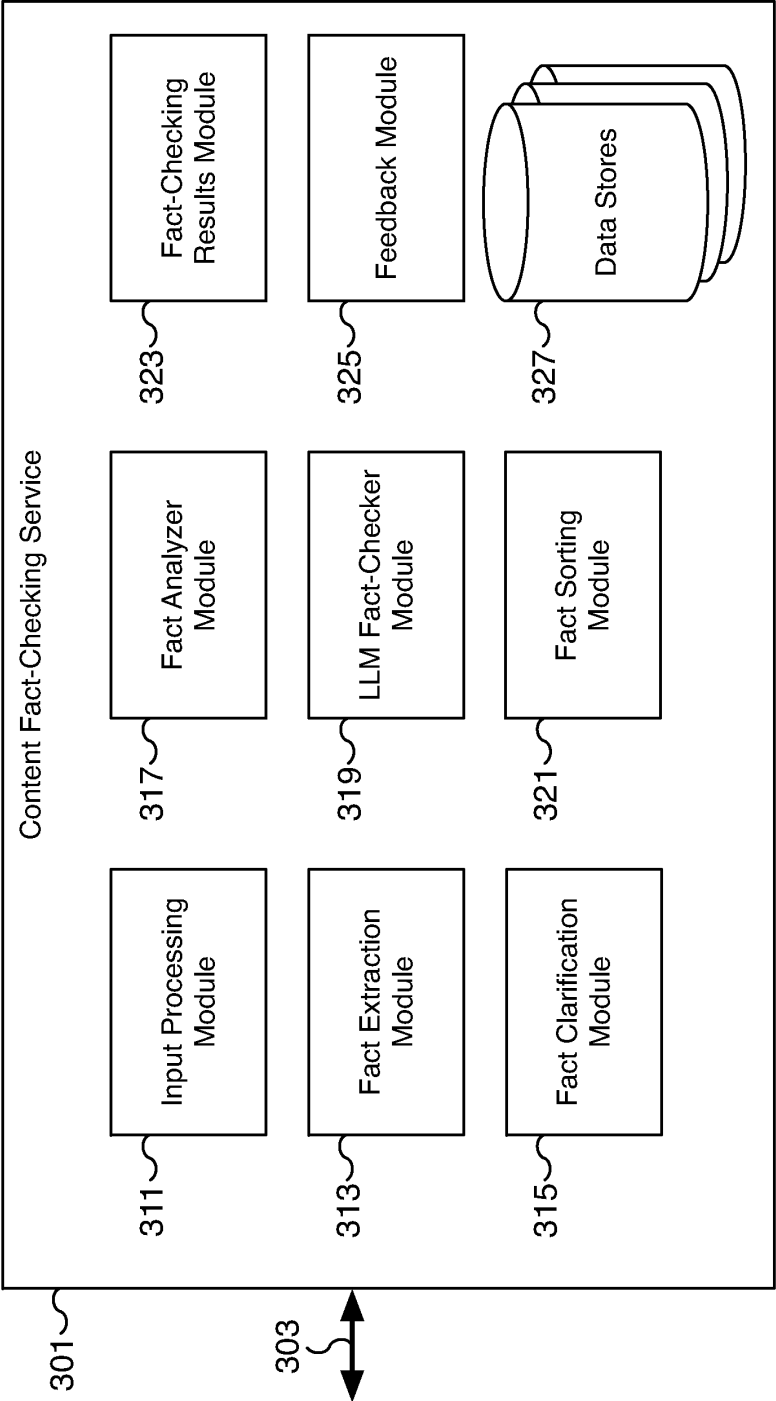

FIG. 3

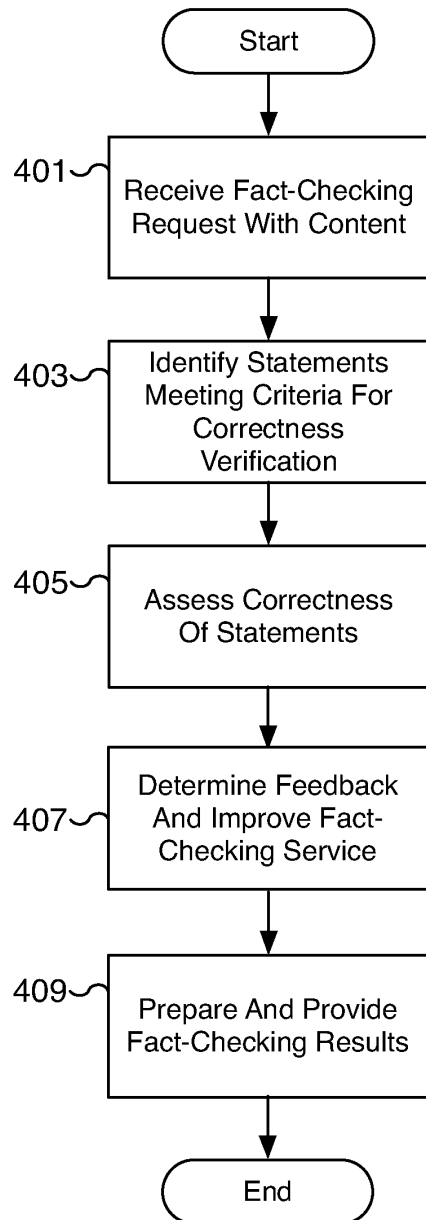

FIG. 4

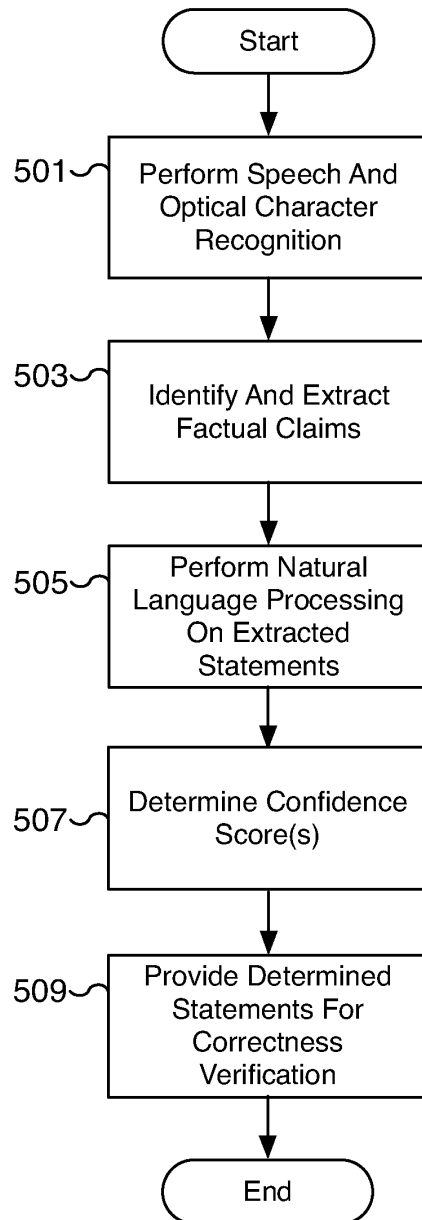

FIG. 5

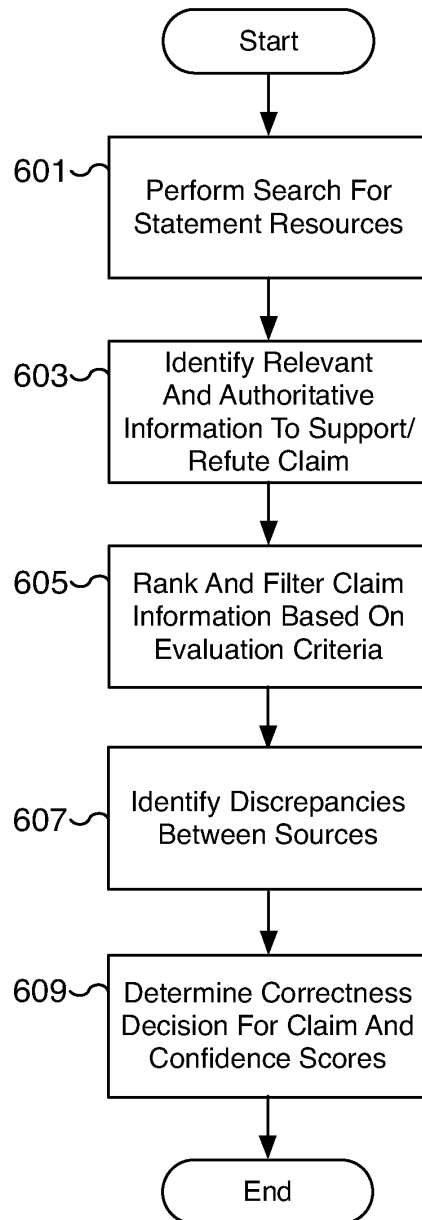

FIG. 6

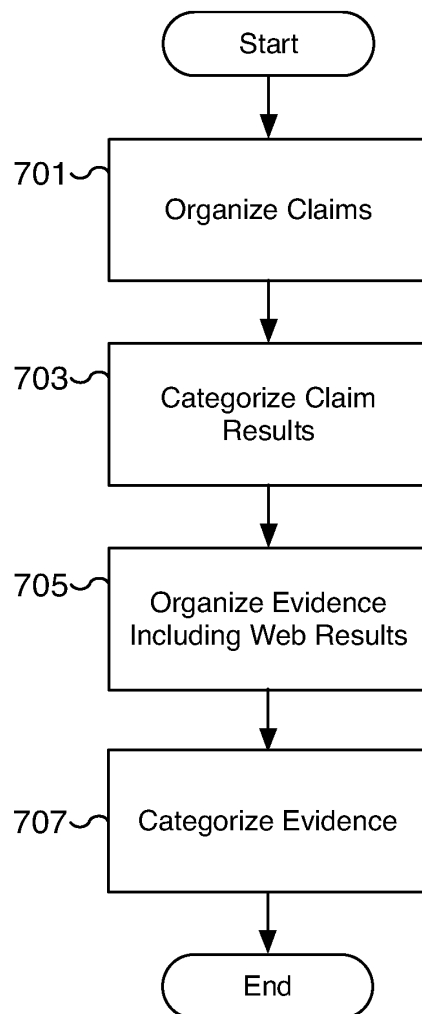

FIG. 7

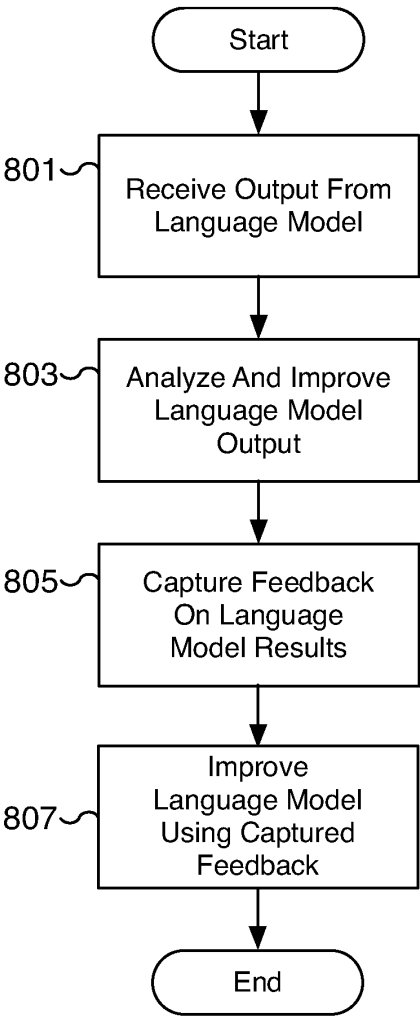

FIG. 8

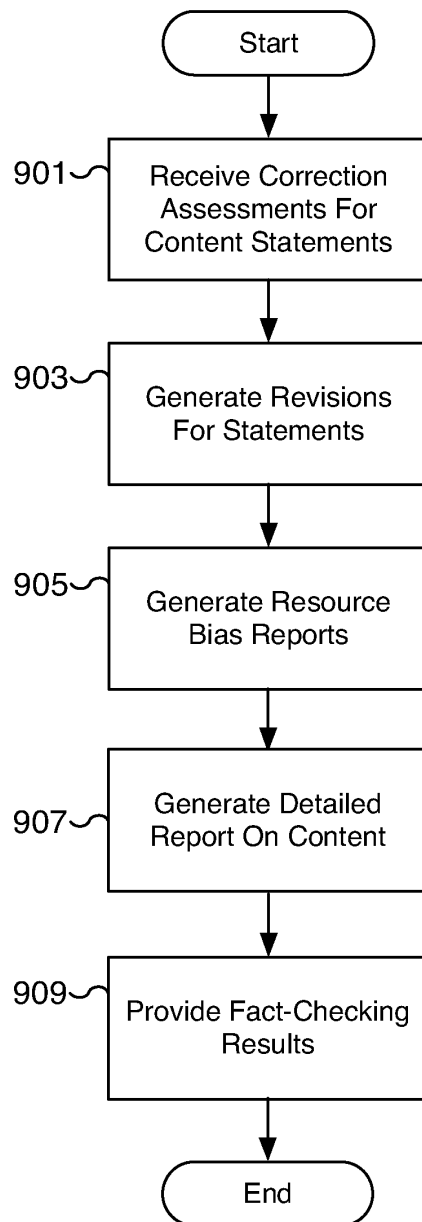

FIG. 9

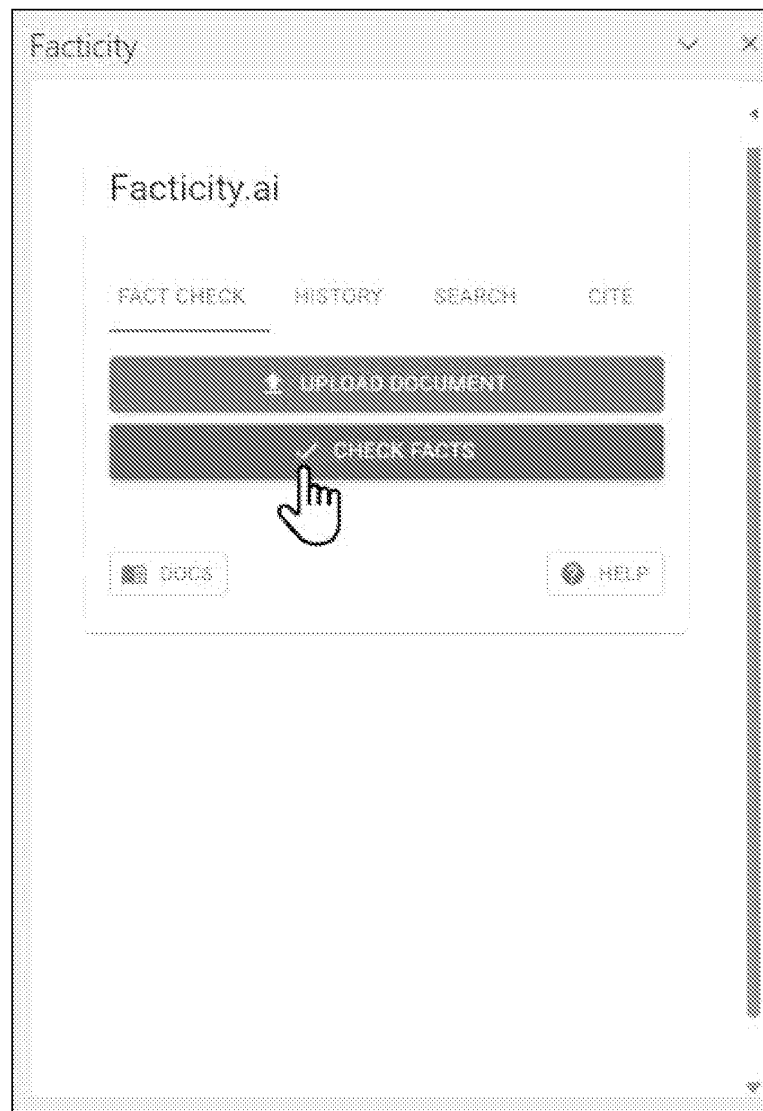

FIG. 10

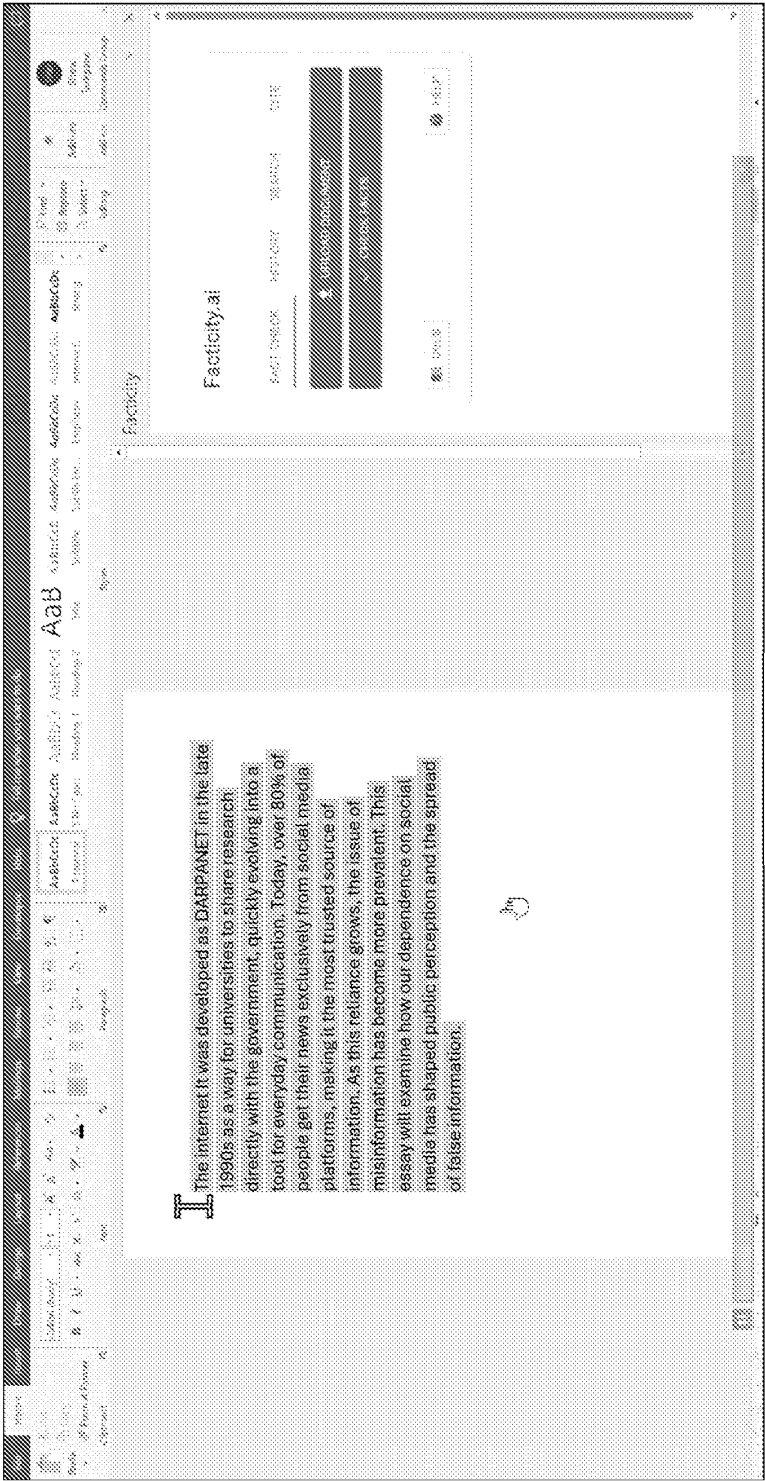

FIG. 11

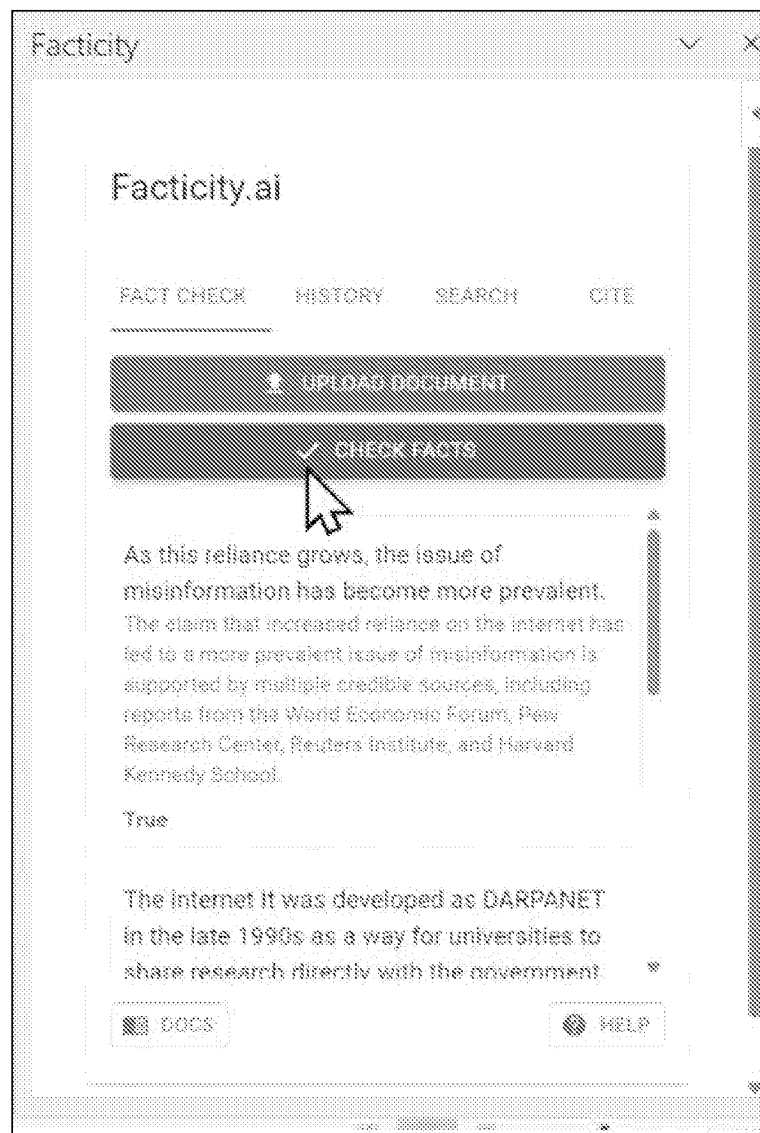

FIG. 12

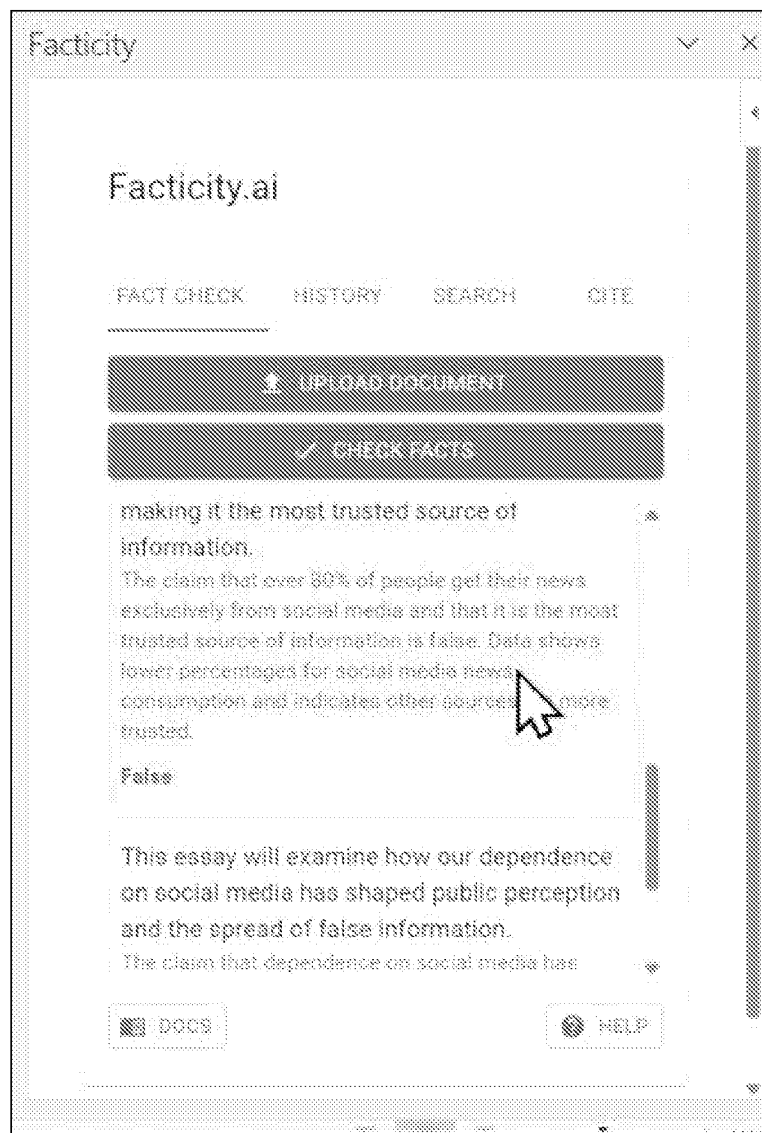

FIG. 13

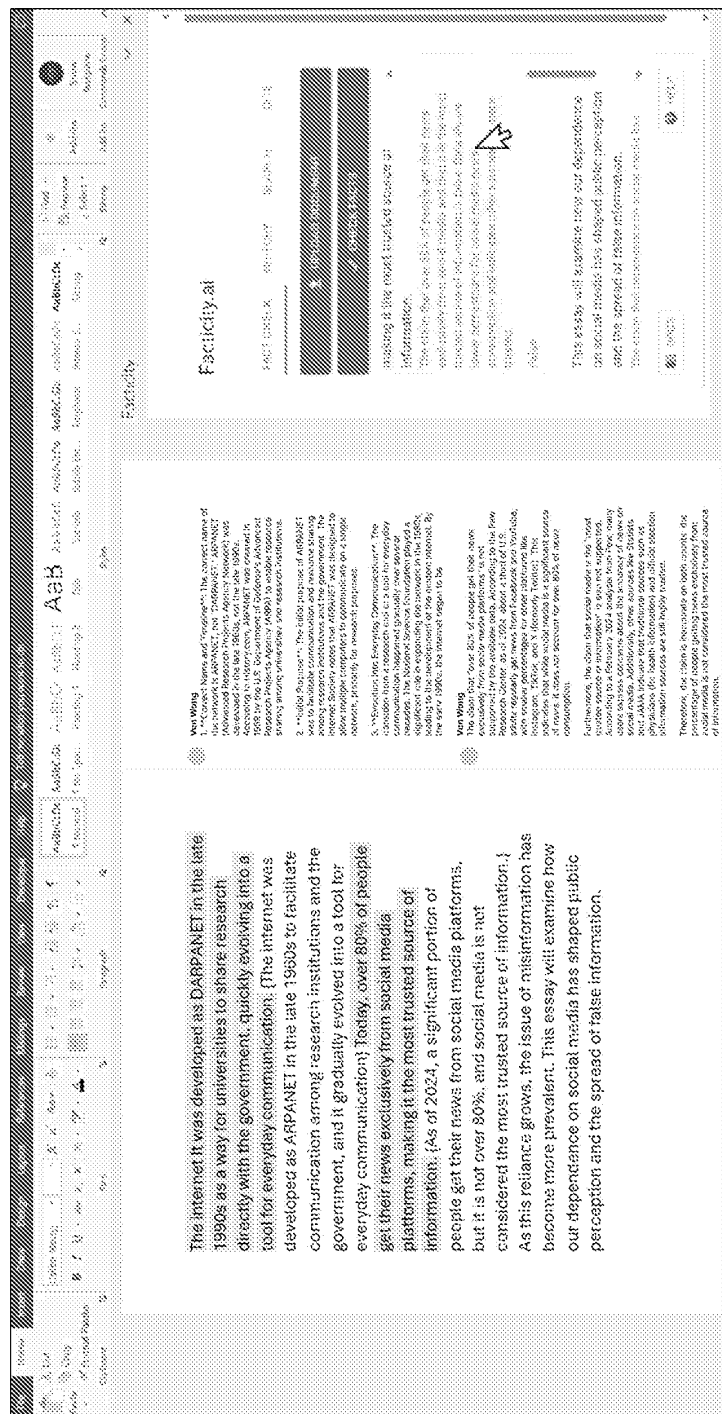

FIG. 14

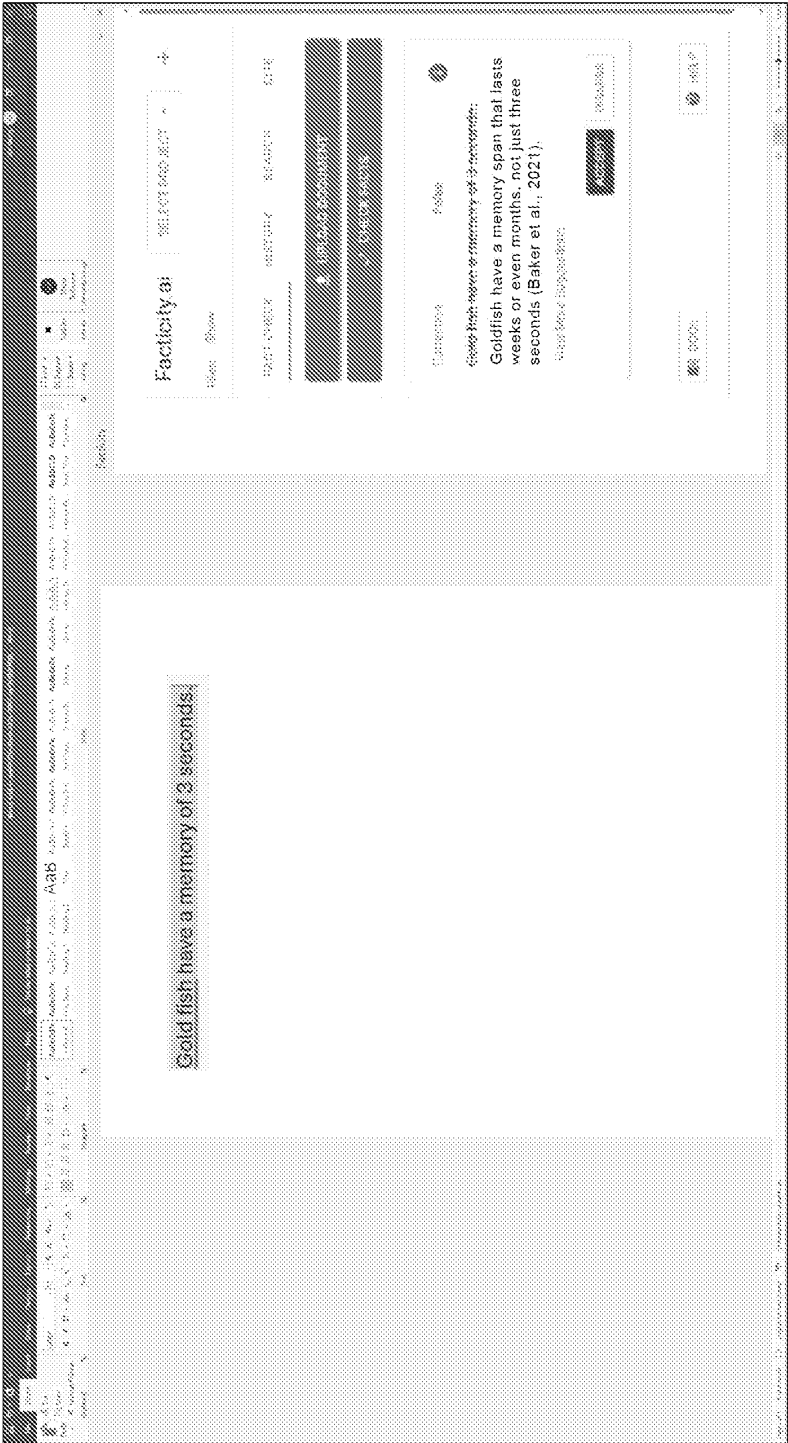

FIG. 16

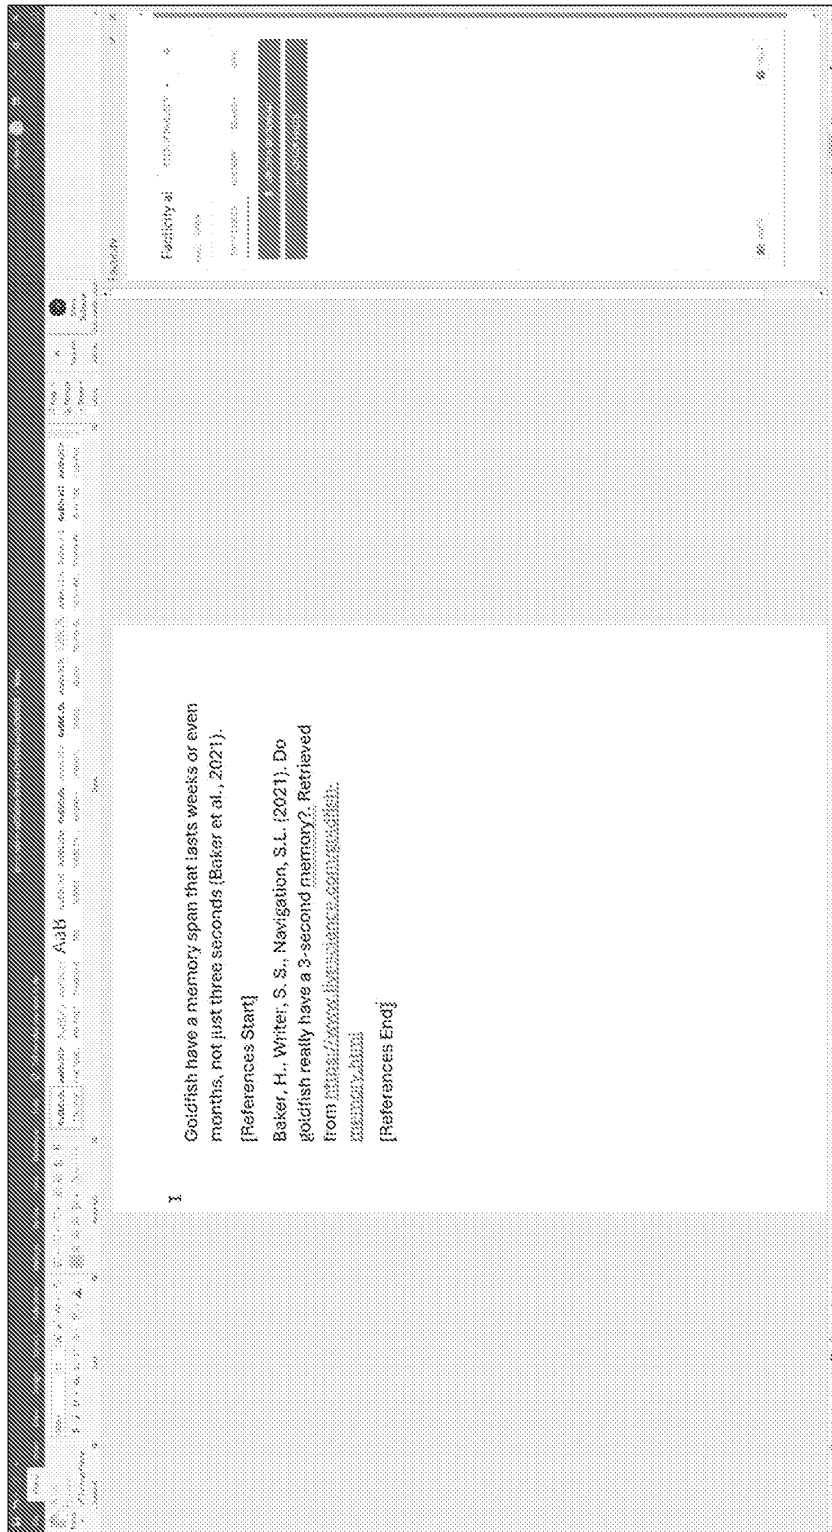

FIG. 17

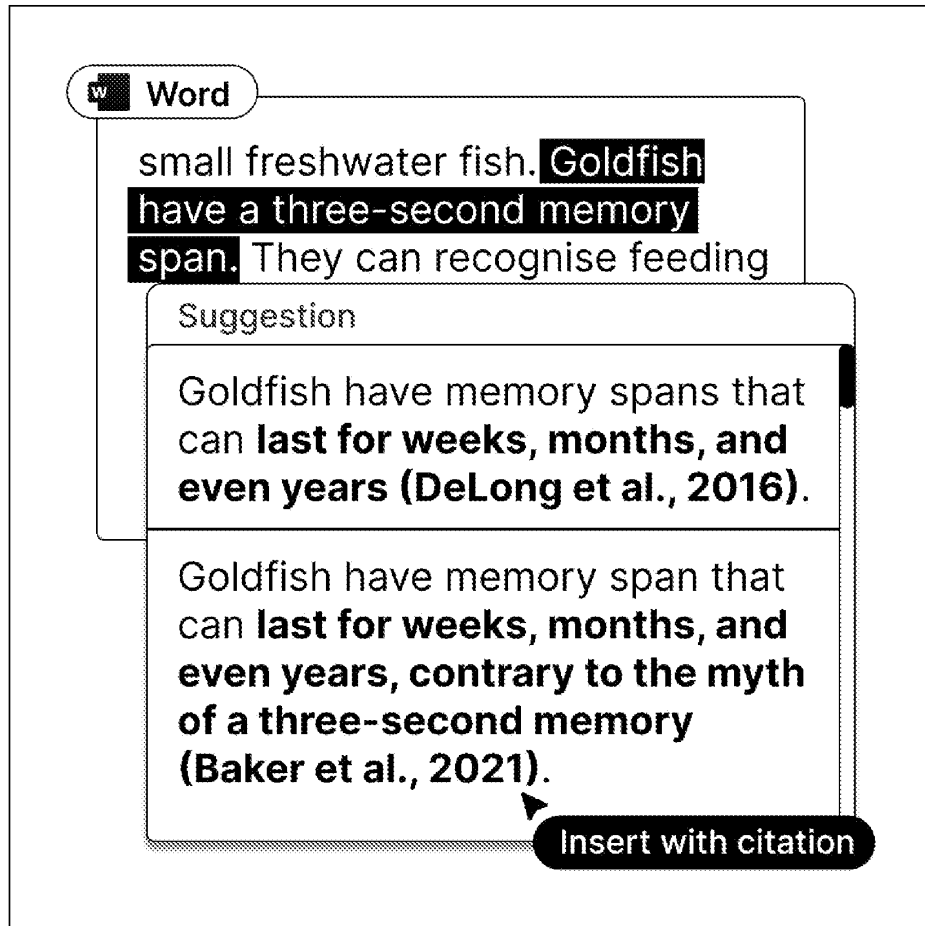

FIG. 18

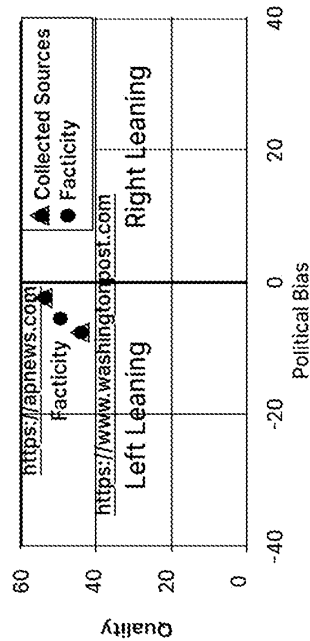

Nancy Pelosi did not accept an offer from Trump of 10,000 soldiers or National Guard on January 6, 2021

False

The claim that Nancy Pelosi did not accept an offer from Trump of 10,000 soldiers or National Guard on January 6, 2021, is false. Multiple credible sources, including AP News, The Washington Post, and The Dispatch, have debunked this claim. They clarify that Pelosi does not have the authority to direct the National Guard. Additionally, there is no evidence that Trump made such an offer. The January 6 committee and other investigations have shown that the claim is not true.

1. AP News (July 23, 2021): The claim that House Speaker Nancy Pelosi blocked the National Guard from coming to the Capitol during the January 6 insurrection is false. Pelosi does not have the authority to direct the National Guard. AP News
2. Washington Post (December 15, 2021): Trump did not order 10,000 troops to secure the Capitol on January 6. The claim that Trump requested increased National Guard support, which was rejected, is also false. Washington Post
3. AP News (June 28, 2024): Trump falsely claimed that he offered Pelosi 10,000 soldiers or National Guard, and she turned them down. Pelosi does not direct the National Guard. AP News
4. The Dispatch (October 25, 2022): The claim that Pelosi rejected Trump's request for National Guard troops on January 6 is false. Pelosi does not have the authority to approve or reject such requests. The Dispatch
5. AJC (June 27, 2024): Trump's claim that Pelosi turned down his offer to send 10,000 soldiers or National Guard to the Capitol during the January 6 insurrection is false. Pelosi does not have the authority to direct the National Guard. AJC

Let's disambiguate: it would be true if there was evidence that Trump offered 10,000 troops and Pelosi had the authority to accept or reject that offer. It is false because no evidence exists of such an offer, and Pelosi lacked the authority to deploy the National Guard.

*Facticity gathers evidence from the web, and its answers might have biases based on the sources it can find on the issue. Here is a breakdown of the sources and their biases for the claim Nancy Pelosi did not accept the offer from Trump of 10,000 soldiers or National Guard on January 6, 2021.

Based on the Ad Fontes Media Chart

FIG. 19

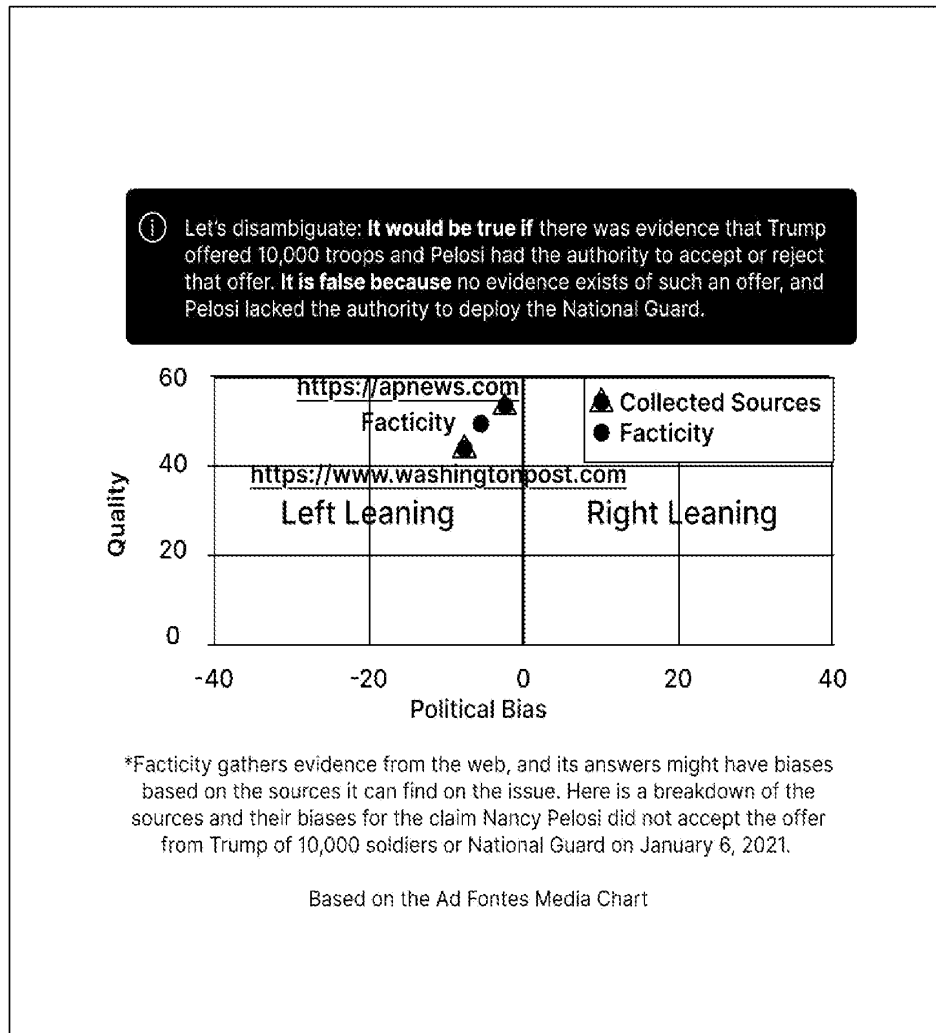

FIG. 20

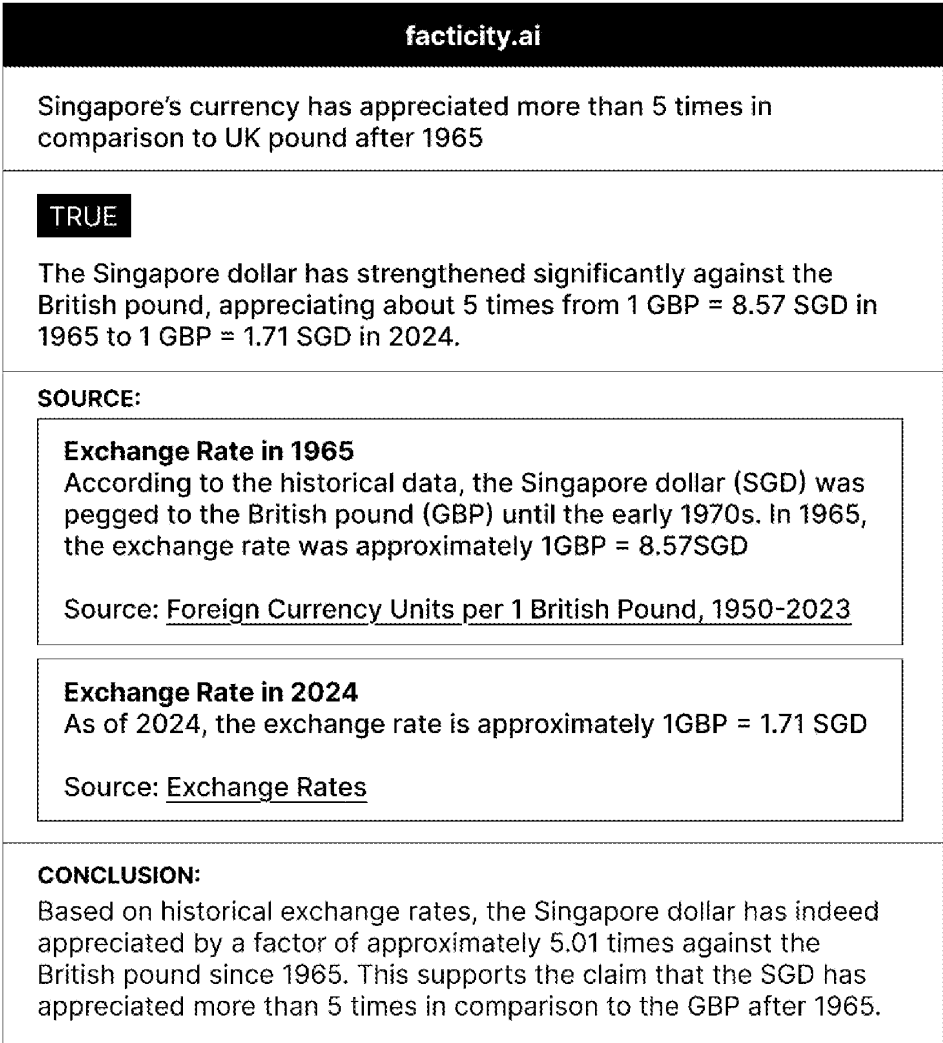

FIG. 21

FIG. 22

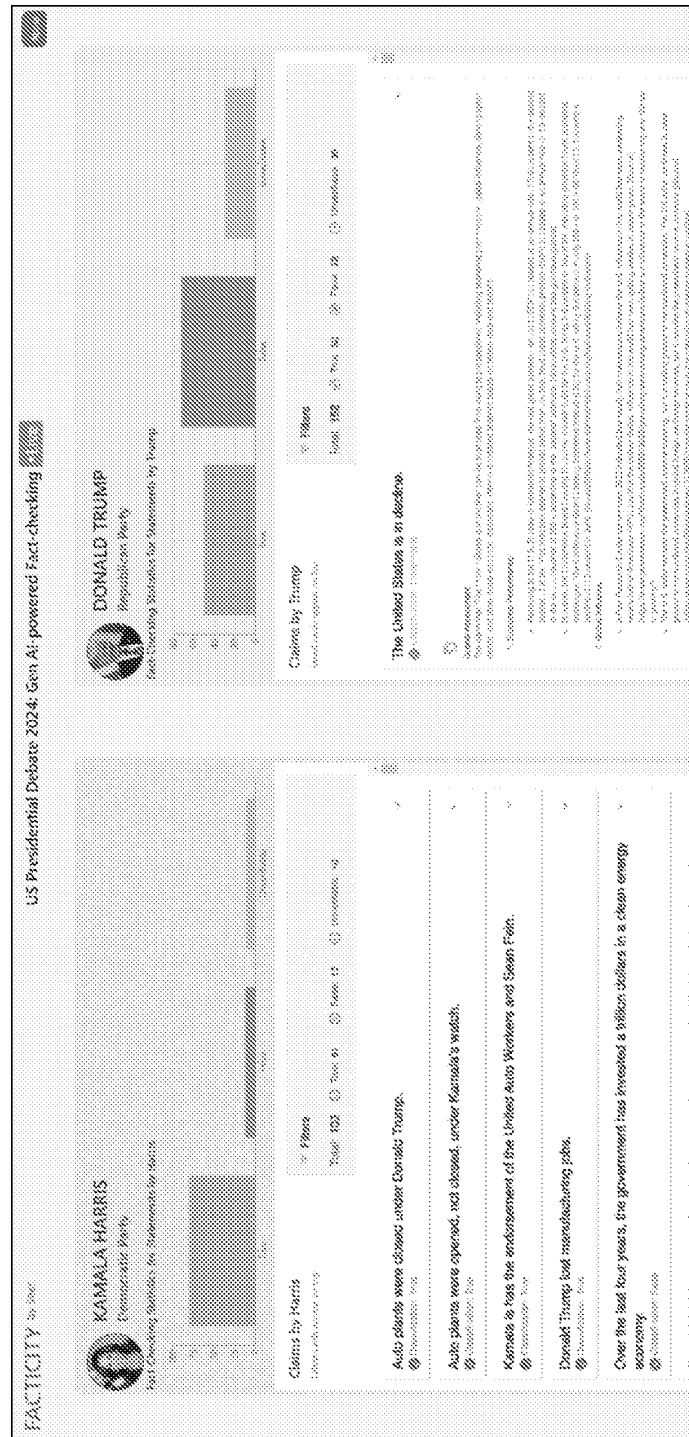

FIG. 23

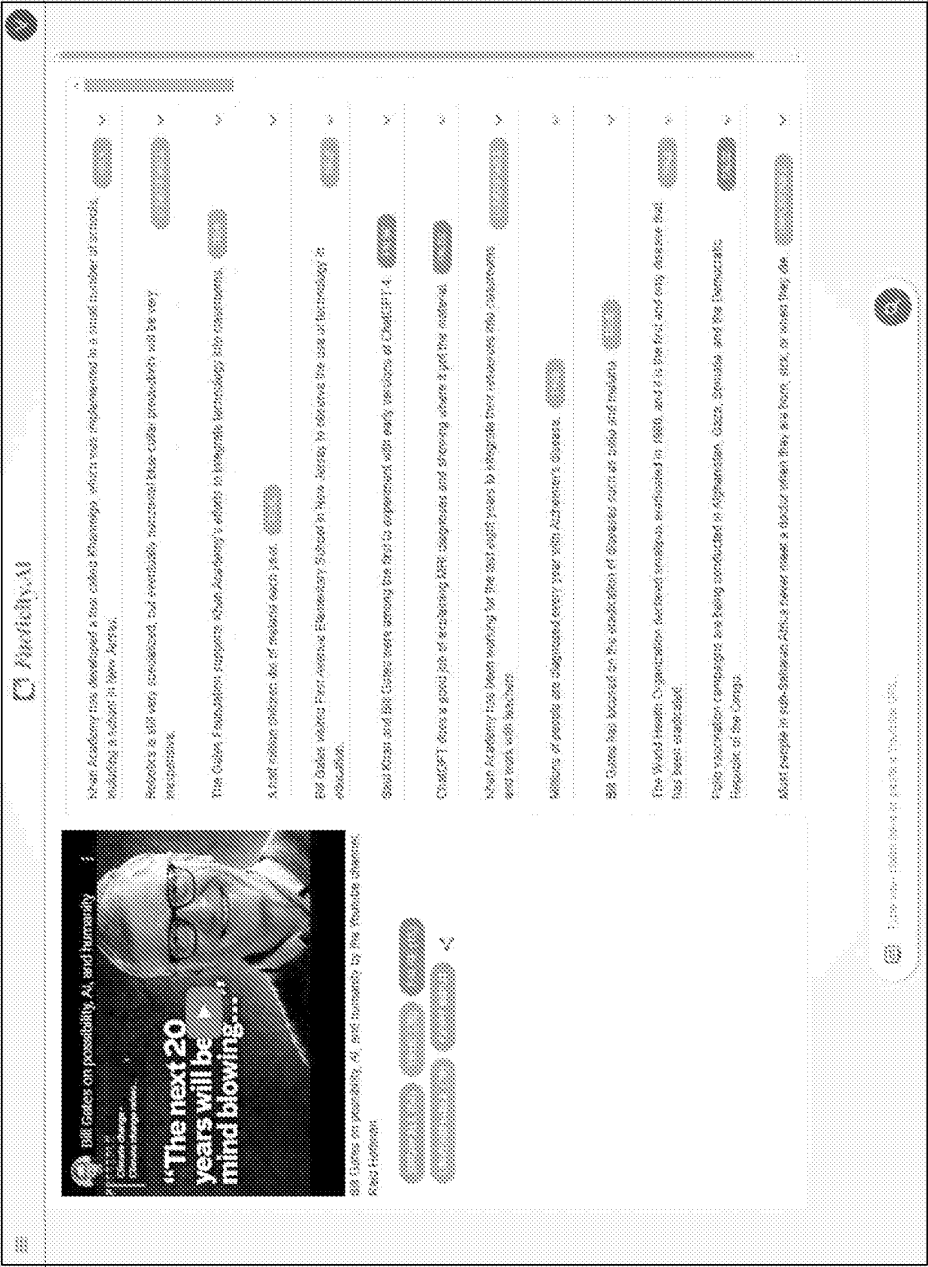

FIG. 24

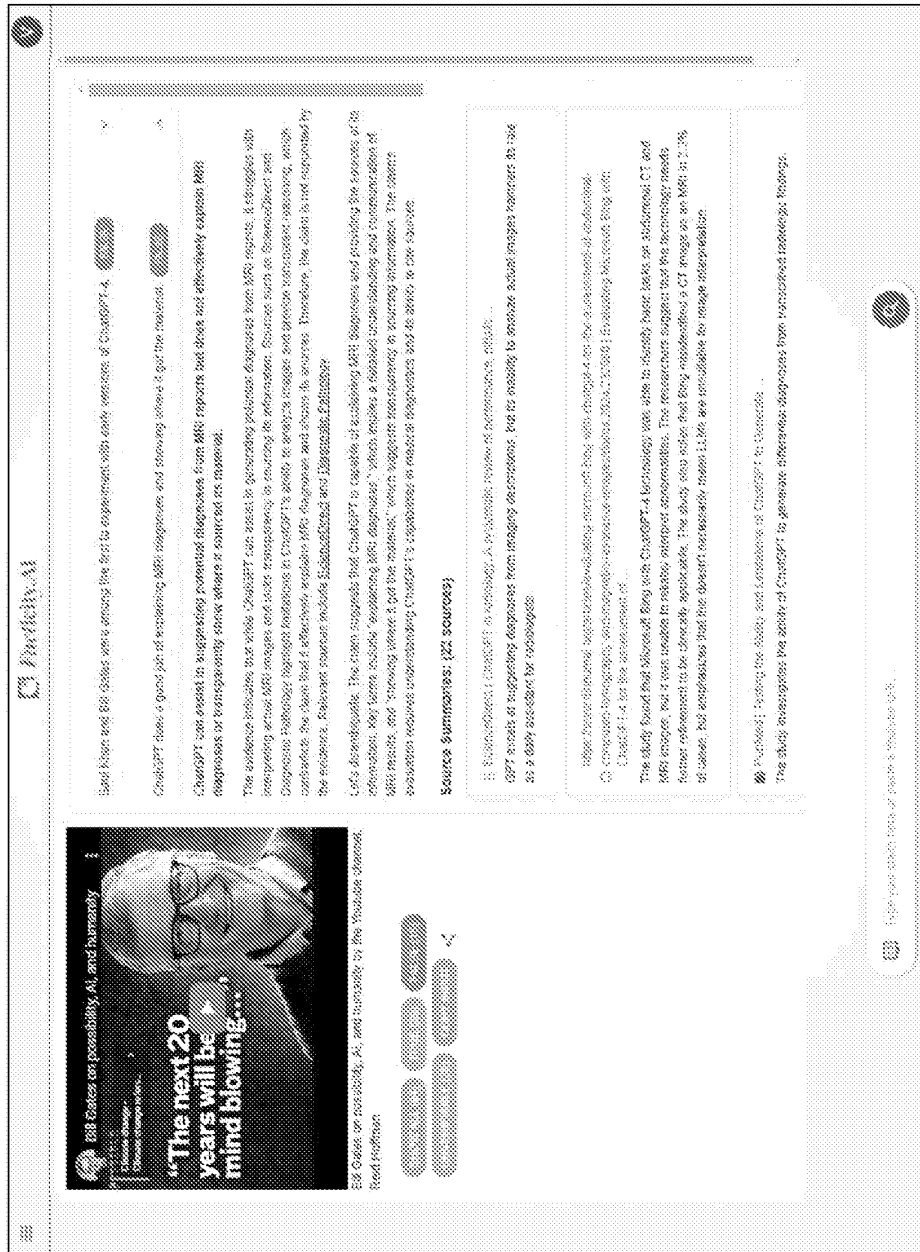

FIG. 25

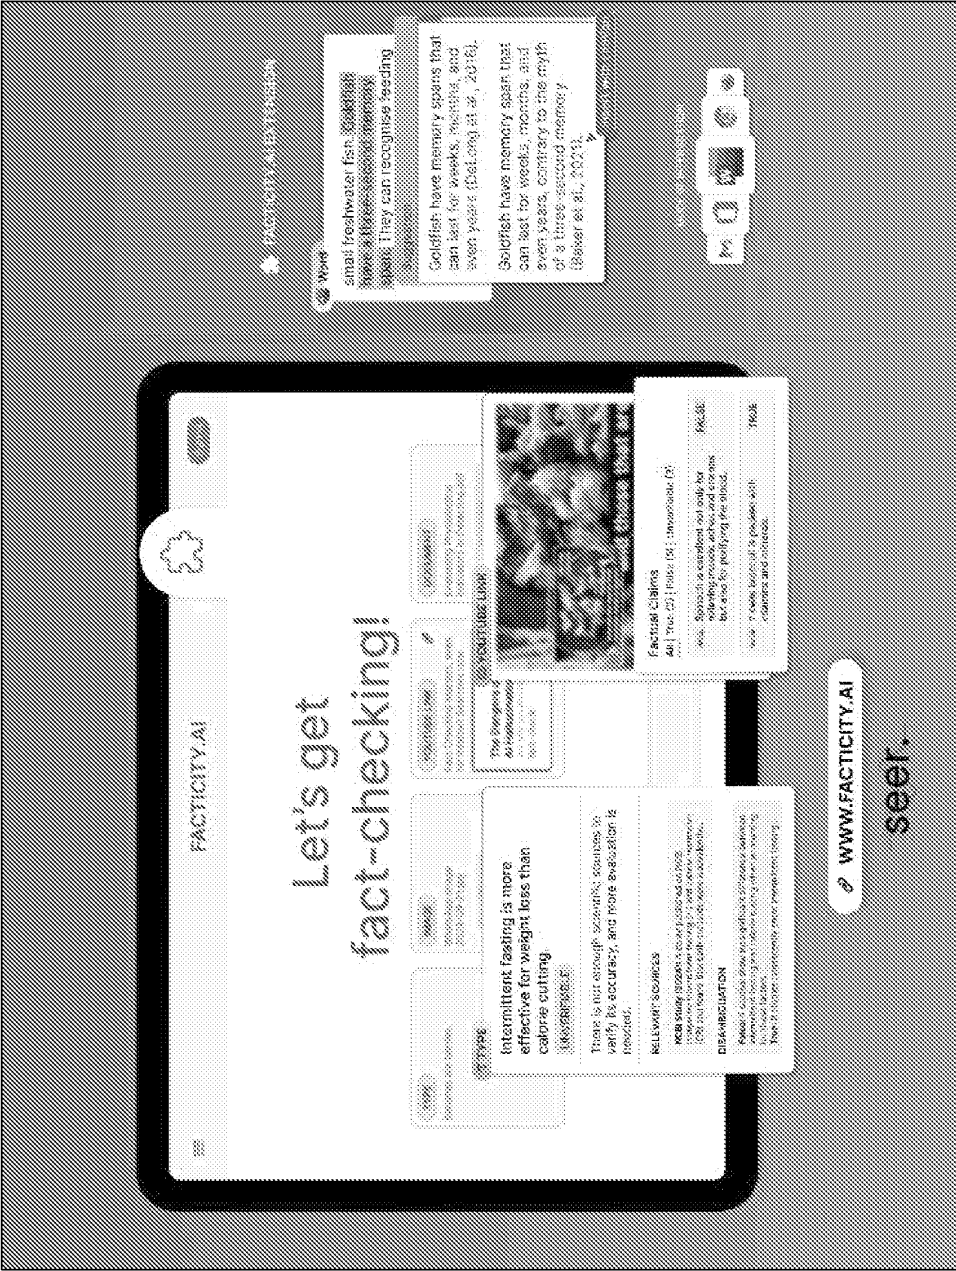

FIG. 26

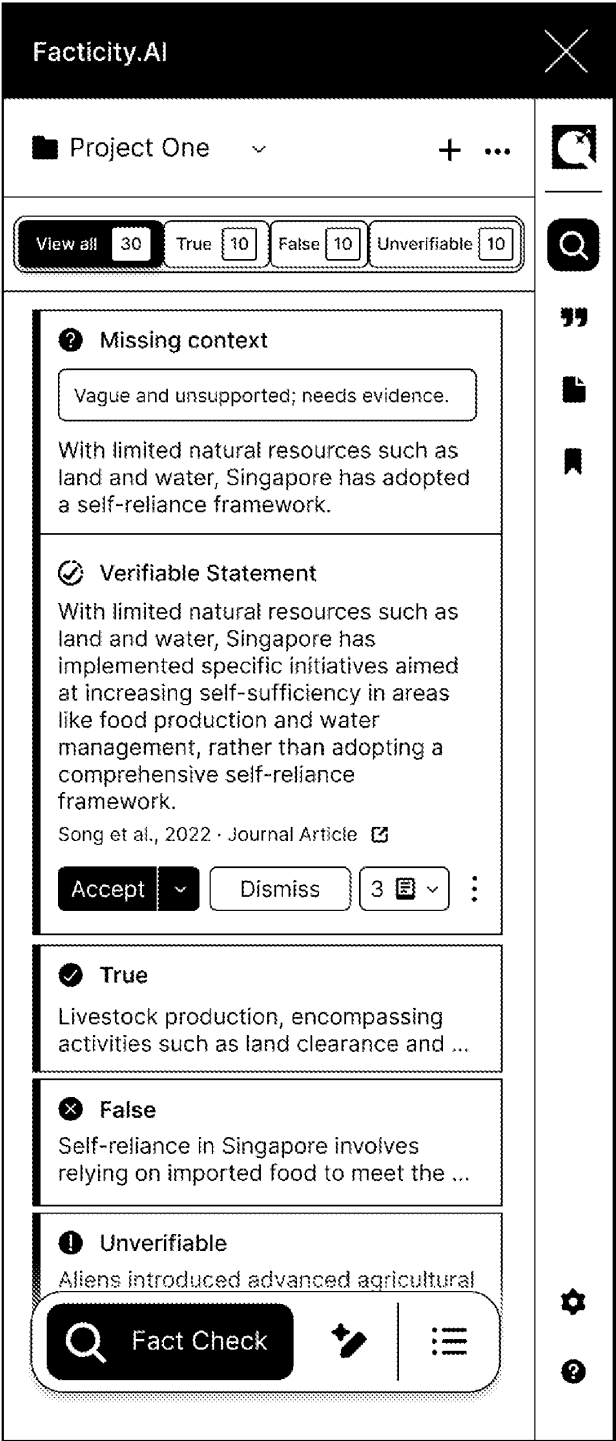

FIG. 27

?

Missing context

Vague and unsupported; needs evidence.

The United States is in decline

✓

Verifiable Statement

The United States maintains a strong alliance with NATO, actively participating in and supporting its initiatives and exercises.

Defense.gov, n.d. · Web Source ↗

Accept

Dismiss

3

View more sources

Supporting Sources

The United States is facing a rising national debt, with consistent increases in the total amount of debt over the past decade.

U.S Treasury Fiscal Data, n.d. · Web Source ↗

Counterargument Sources

The United States has a thriving startup culture, marked by a high number of startups, strong infrastructure, and a spirit of innovation, with growth continuing even during economic downturns like the COVID-19 pandemic.

McKinsey, n.d. · Web Source ↗

Neutral Sources

The U.S. is experiencing both economic pressures, such as an overheated economy, and opportunities for renewal and growth, evidenced by robust productivity and employment growth and initiatives like the Good Jobs Challenge.

IMF, n.d. · Web Source ↗

FIG. 28

28/34

SUBSTITUTE SHEET RULE 26

FIG. 29

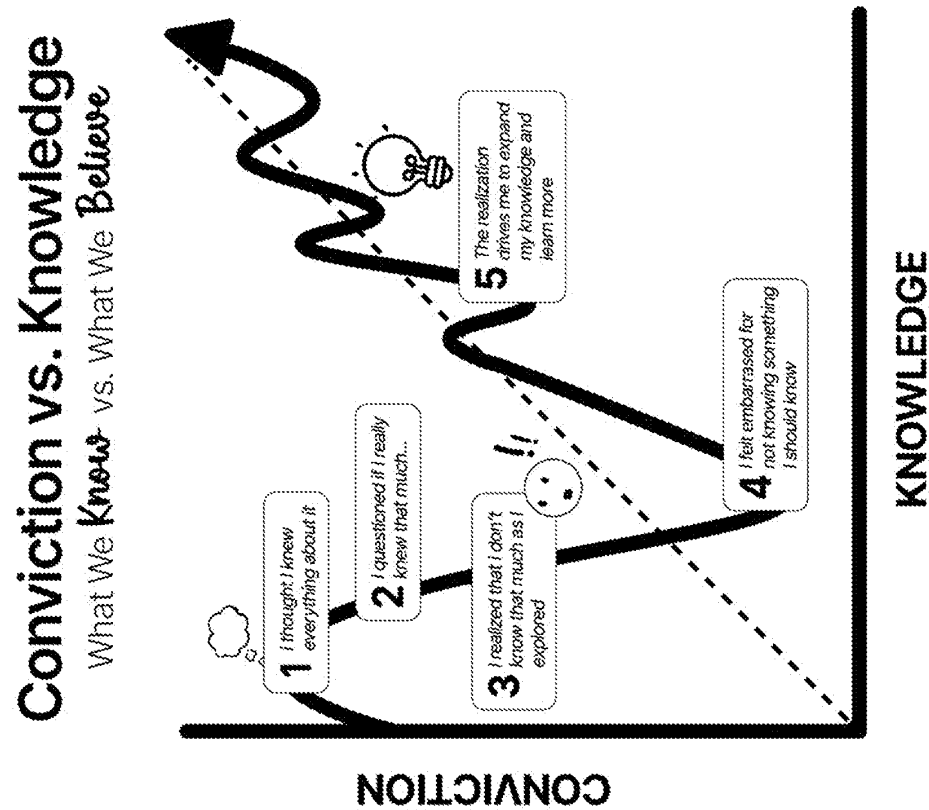

FIG. 30

andrew park worked in apple

Clarification Needed:

What time period did Andrew Park work at Apple?

2010-2015

2016-2020

2021-PRESENT

Your Answer

SUBMIT CLARIFICATION

SKIP

FIG. 31

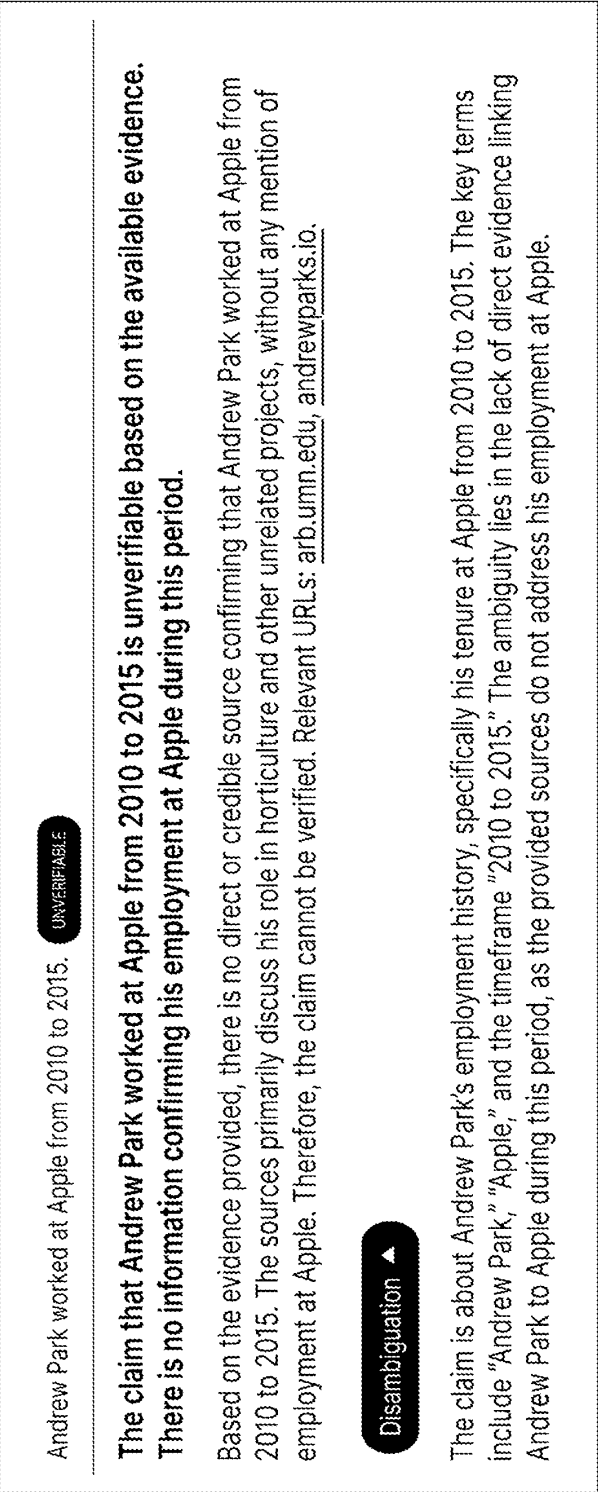

FIG. 32

 Facticity.AI Koenigsegg Jesko is fastest MISSING CONTEXT	The Koenigsegg Jesko Absolut is claimed to be one of the fastest cars in the world, with a theoretical top speed of 330 mph, but this has not been verified through actual testing. The Bugatti Chiron Supersport 300+ currently holds the record for the fastest verified top speed of 304 mph. Based on the evidence, the Koenigsegg Jesko Absolut is claimed to be one of the fastest cars in the world, with a theoretical top speed of 330 mph. However, this speed has not been verified through actual testing, and the Bugatti Chiron Supersport 300+ currently holds the record for the fastest car with a verified top speed of 304 mph. Therefore, the claim that the Koenigsegg Jesko is the fastest is not currently verifiable. Key sources include Autoblog, Carwow, and Motor1.com. Disambiguation ▼ Source Summaries: (16 sources) ▾
● Autoblog What is the fastest car in the world in 2024? - Autoblog According to Koenigsegg, the Jesko Absolut is capable of hitting a staggering 330 mph top speed. The car's twin-turbocharged 5.0-liter V8 lays ... Supporting	● jwaaaap GOTY OF THE VOTY 2023 - by Jan Willem Nijman - jwaaaap The source states that the Koenigsegg Jesko Absolut is the fastest sports car in the world. Supporting
● Carwow Top 10 Fastest Cars in the World in 2025 Carwow The Koenigsegg Jesko Absolut is listed as the fastest production car in the world, with a theoretical top speed of over 310 mph. However, this is based on a computer simulation, and the car has not actually reached that speed on the road. The Bugatti Chiron Supersport 300+ currently holds the record for the fastest car in the world, with a top speed of 304 mph. Counterargument	● Koenigsegg.com Jesko Absolut Koenigsegg The Jesko Absolut is designed to achieve higher speeds than any other Koenigsegg or fully homologated car. The source claims it will be unbelievably fast, but does not provide a specific speed. Neutral

FIG. 33

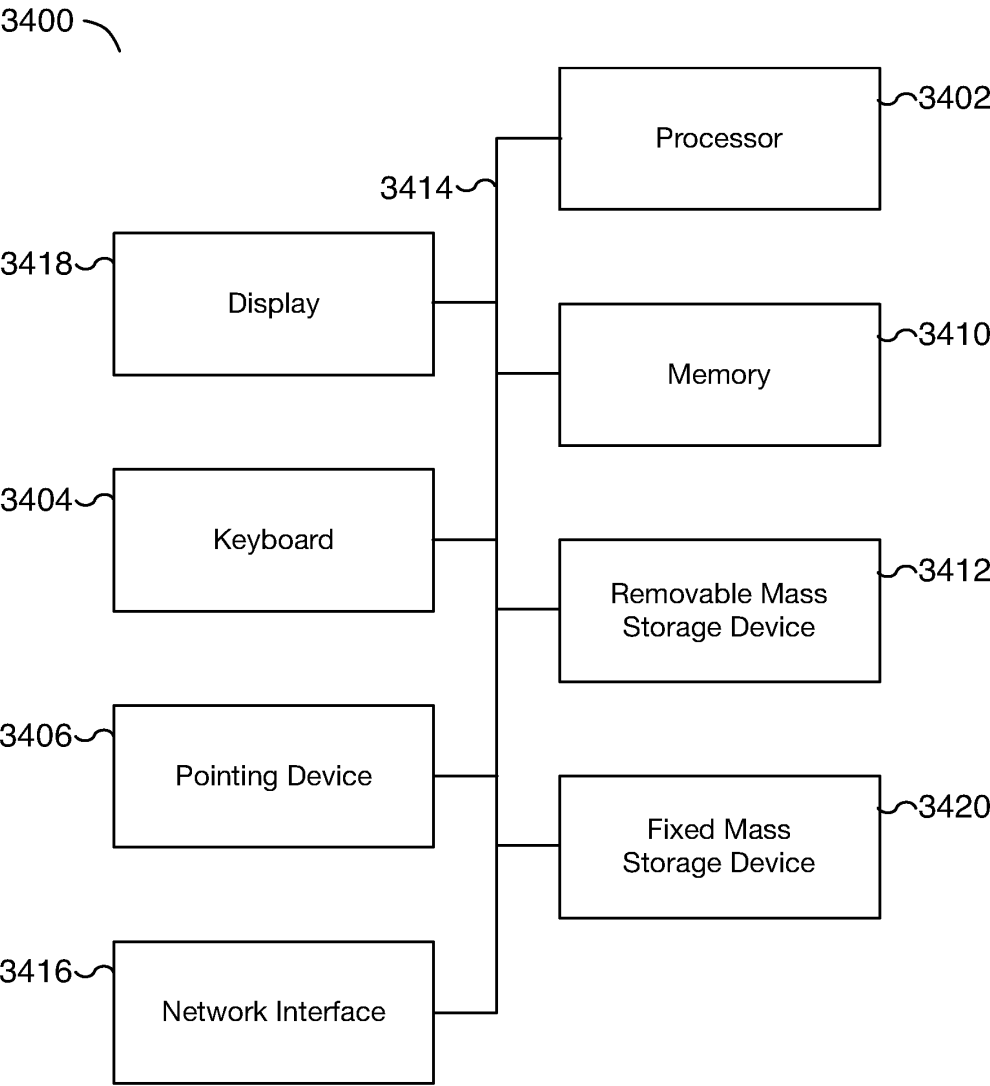

FIG. 34