

EROSION RESISTANT COATINGAbstract

A platinum plus chromium coating applied to the roots and firtrrees of turbine blades where the inclusion of chromium creates a single phase outer zone which minimises diffusion
5 paths for sulphur which can preferentially diffuse down phase boundaries and enables a chromium rich outer oxide scale to form on top of the coating.

Fig. 3