10. A system according to claim 1, further comprising a history database containing history data record definitions of any track record of virtual base-station identification event including event handling definitions and track recording.