ABSTRACT

SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR BUSINESS INCORPORATION AND SECRETARIAL SERVICES

The invention includes a system and method for providing company incorporation services and company secretarial services. The invention streamlines the process of providing incorporation and company secretarial services to clients. The users of the system can include company staff and a company's clients. The invention can eliminate the requirement of conducting physical meetings and circulating hardcopies of paperwork. The invention can also provide a user with proposals/advice related to forming and properly maintaining a business entity.
