

Abstract

COMPOSITE PANEL

- 5 A composite panel comprises a first composite material, a reinforcing material and a second composite material. The second composite material is interposed between the two first composite materials. The reinforcing material is within the first and the second composite materials provide an added strength to the composite panel.

10 [Fig. 1]