Abstract:

An amphoteric compound based on a sterol skeleton is suggested, the 3-position of the ring system being substituted by one or more amphoteric groups with an isoelectric point of between 4 and 9, as well as liposomes containing such compounds.

162162

G00002