

Abstract

A management system S is provided with a contact information determination unit 4k for determining contact information for a parent in response to a request from a school teacher or the parent, and a cultural understanding degree recognition unit 4f for recognizing a cultural understanding degree that indicates a degree of understanding of a parent P with respect to a culture in a location of a school, based on at least one of pupil/student information that is information on a pupil/student and parent information that is information on the parent P of the pupil/student. The contact information determination unit 4k changes a content of the contact information in accordance with the recognized cultural understanding degree.