THIS SHEET HAS BEEN REPLACED

ABSTRACT OF THE INVENTION

FAULT TOLERANT MEMORY

A method for organizing data in a memory so that fault tolerance of the memory is optimized. Reed-Solomon symbols are stored vertically in RAM devices and a block of data consisting of such symbols is distributed throughout an array of thirty-two RAM devices organized in two columns of sixteen.

This Sheet Has Been Replaced