

ABSTRACT

The invention is a reusable, single-pieced, rigid, plastic construct which, when attached on top of an opened standard beverage can, fits a snug, depressed seal over the opening of the can. This prevents contamination, spillage and slows down the loss of pressure in carbonated drinks.

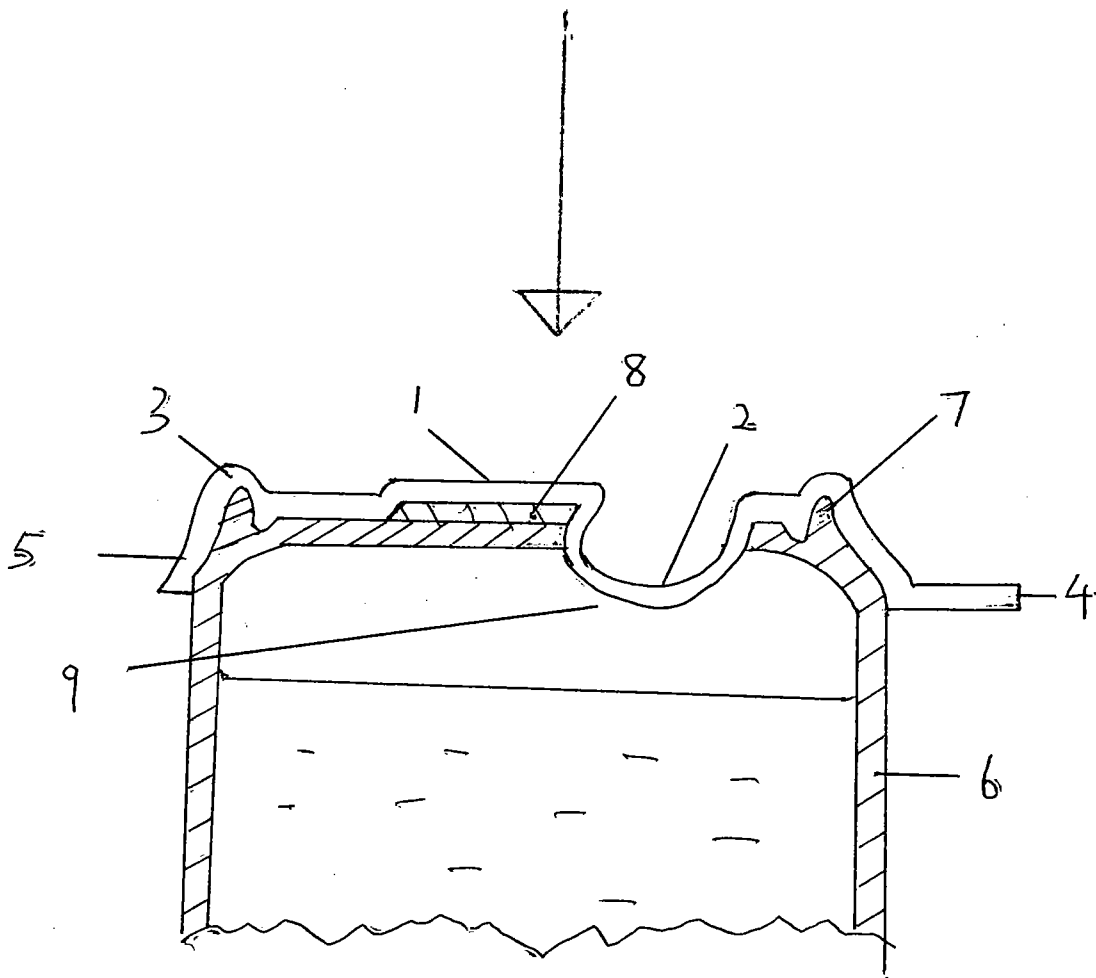

FIG 3

162162

G00001