

This Sheet Has Been Replaced

ABSTRACT

WATERBORNE PHOTORESISTS HAVING POLYSILOXANES

A waterborne photoimageable composition or photoresist comprises a latex binder polymer having sufficient carboxylic acid functionality to render it developable in alkaline aqueous solution, a photopolymerizeable monomer fraction, a photoinitiator chemical system and a poly(siloxane(s)).