

Abstract

There is a demand for a beer-taste wort having less grain odor. The beer-taste wort has a ratio $((B)/(A))$ of an original extract concentration (unit: mass%) (B) to an alcohol content (unit: (v/v)%) (A) of 2.50 or less.