

MEANS AND METHOD FOR DEMONSTRATING THE EFFECTS OF LOW CYLINDER ASTIGMATISM CORRECTION

ABSTRACT

A new vision test, incorporating textual and non-textual elements in an image, is configured to demonstrate the effects of low cylinder astigmatism and other sources of blur on visual quality. The elements are designed to be noticeable, relevant, important and engaging. The new vision test may be utilized to supplement conventional vision testing.

Fig. 1