

ABSTRACTCOLLISION DETECTION IN A NON-DOMINANT BIT RADIO NETWORK COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

A communications system and protocol for use in a non-dominant bit radio network. The radio network includes transceivers which communicate with other transceivers to allow network variables to be shared by all transceivers. The protocol also handles communications between transceivers that are out of transmitting range of each other.

Fig. 8