ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

The trade logistics delivery arrangement system 1 that refers a distributed ledger 200 and arranges delivery of an item 10 in trade logistics to satisfy a condition by a combination of land transportation, sea transportation, and air transportation acquires item information on an item 10 stored by a customer 300; records the acquired item information into a distributed ledger 200; refers to the item information recorded in the distributed ledger 200 and calculates a combination of trade logistics vendors 400 that satisfy a condition by a combination of land transportation, sea transportation, and air transportation for trade logistics of the item 10 if the inventory quantity of the item 10 satisfies a predetermined condition; and arranges delivery of the item to a customer 300 with a trade logistics vendor 400 who satisfies a condition based on the calculated combination.

Fig. 1 for publication