

IMPROVED STEERABILITY OF DOWNHOLE RANGING TOOLS USING ROTARY MAGNETS

ABSTRACT

- 5 A ranging system having magnets positioned at various locations along the drive system. Location of the magnetics is shifted to different points on the drilling string to remove the need for a nearby bit sub that would detrimentally affect the steerability of the drilling system.

[Figure 2]