

Abstract

DIVICE FOR PERFORMING UREASE TESTS ON COMBINED ANTRUM/CORPUS BIOPSIES TO DIAGNOSE GASTRO-INTESTINAL ILLNESSES

A device for performing urease tests on combined antrum/corpus biopsies in diagnose gastro-intestinal illnesses comprises a carrier plate, a schematic representation of the stomach on the carrier plate, at least one opening in the carrier plate in the locations corresponding to the corpus and to the antrum of the schematic representation, an evaluation scale for assessment of the urease tests and a field for patient data and clinical documentation.

Fig. 1