(54) Title: AN ITERATIVE COLLABORATIVE ANNOTATION SYSTEM

(57) Abstract: A collaborative annotation system for facilitating annotations, such as commentaries, of time-based media, such as video, by users is disclosed. The system involves displaying and controlling the display of a time-based medium, and receiving and storing input for defining a location in the time-based medium. The system also involves receiving and storing an annotation relating to the context of the location, and performing and storing a valuation relating to the annotation.
