

IMPROVED PEAK DETECTOR FOR AUTOMATIC GAIN CONTROL

ABSTRACT

The present invention includes a variable gain amplifier (200) to output two differential signals which are level shifted and compared through two comparators (250,260) to drive a charge pump (280) which produces either a discharge current or a charge current to provide feedback control to the variable gain amplifier.

FIGURE 6

This Sheet Has Been Replaced

