Joel, we need you to cut your story on jaywalking tickets down about 1/3 to make room for a brief on charity ball being held this weekend. Is that possible?
What? A charity ball is more important than the skyrocketing number of jaywalking tickets in the city we all love?!?! Yeah, I can cut it.
Forgot to mention, could you also write the brief on the charity ball?
Actually, couldn't we get the story on the Experience Music Project instead? That story is less newsworthy.
Yeah, I can do the charity ball story too.
To be honest, I think people will want to read more about the Experience Music Project than jaywalking tickets. I think we should cut your story.
Ok.
