

MUSIC INVESTMENT SYSTEM

ABSTRACT

5

Provided is a music investment system, with which transparency of the flow of invested funds is maintained and with which an investor is able to invest with confidence. The music investment system includes a server, an artist device, and an investor device. The server includes: an investment object information reception unit that receives
10 ownership information indicating the ownership of an artist and the ownership of an investor of an investment object; an investor registry update unit; a musical content reception unit that prepares ownership transfer information for music content; a music content delivery unit; a profit information reception unit; and a profit distribution unit that 15 issues tokens in accordance with the quantity of profit distributed to each investor. The investor device has a display control unit that displays information recorded in the recording unit.

Figure 1A