

ABSTRACT

Footwear consists of a sole and a flexible size foot cover, where there are two models of foot cover, one with sock concept and the other with bandage concept; the sock concept foot cover is made of elastic Velcro loop at the outer surface of the foot cover; the bandage concept foot cover is made of an elastic bandage strap which consists of elastic Velcro loop at one surface and Velcro hook at two end of the other surface, to allow the bandage to be able to secure firmly when wrapped around the foot; the sole has a Velcro hook at the top surface to allow either models of foot cover to attach to and detach from the sole, via their elastic Velcro loop outer surface.

162162

G00001