(54) Title: METHOD OF AND RECEIVER FOR PROCESSING AND REPRODUCING A MESSAGE (57) Abstract A method of processing and reproducing a coded message, which message is divided into a first and a second part, the first part including information which briefly characterises the message. The first part is reproduced acoustically and the second part is reproduced visually. By acoustically reproducing only a part of the message a user is distracted only briefly and need not listen to the entire message if this message is not relevant to him. If the message is relevant to him he can consult the display for the rest of the message.
