

Abstract

Rulo Roll Puzzle is a recreational puzzle, consisting of a grid of colored circles. These are initially arranged in sections within the grid by colour. The circles can be moved by selecting a square group of the circles, and rotating the selected group through 90 degree turns. The puzzle is shuffled through an initial series of random rotations. The aim of the puzzle is to then restore the puzzle to the original state.

Figure 4