(54) Title: A PROCESS FOR EXTRACTING MUNG BEAN PROTEIN

FIGURE 1

(57) Abstract: The present invention relates to a process for mung bean protein extraction. More particularly, the present invention provides a process for mung bean protein extraction with high protein purity by adding antifoaming agent at multiple steps for high protein yield and can balance high functionality and desired organoleptic properties of the mung bean protein extract. The mung bean protein extract is in the form of isolate or concentrate which has applications in food and beverage industries.
