
Receive a trigger operation of a user for a conversation function
S102
Display, in response to the trigger operation, an interface for the conversation function
S104
Display conversation information in the interface based on behavior of the user prior to the trigger operation, wherein the conversation information comprises a candidate question associated with content involved in the behavior
S106

FIG. 1