

Abstract

Glycosylated Polypeptide and Drug Composition Containing said Polypeptide

[Problem] To provide a glycosylated polypeptide having affinity to somatostatin receptors and, compared to somatostatins, having improved in-blood stability.
[Solution] The glycosylated polypeptide is characterized by at least two amino acids in a somatostatin or an analogue thereof being replaced by glycosylated amino acids.

Figure for publication: None