
100
110
receiving, via at least one server device, one or more messages 120
at least one server device processing at least one of the one or more messages 130
grading content included in said at least one message 140
applying a weighting factor to said at least one message according to said grading, thereby determining a weighted message count for said at least one message 150
aggregating the weighted message count for said at least one message 160
initiating an action if the aggregated weighted message count meets or exceeds a predetermined count threshold

FIG. 1

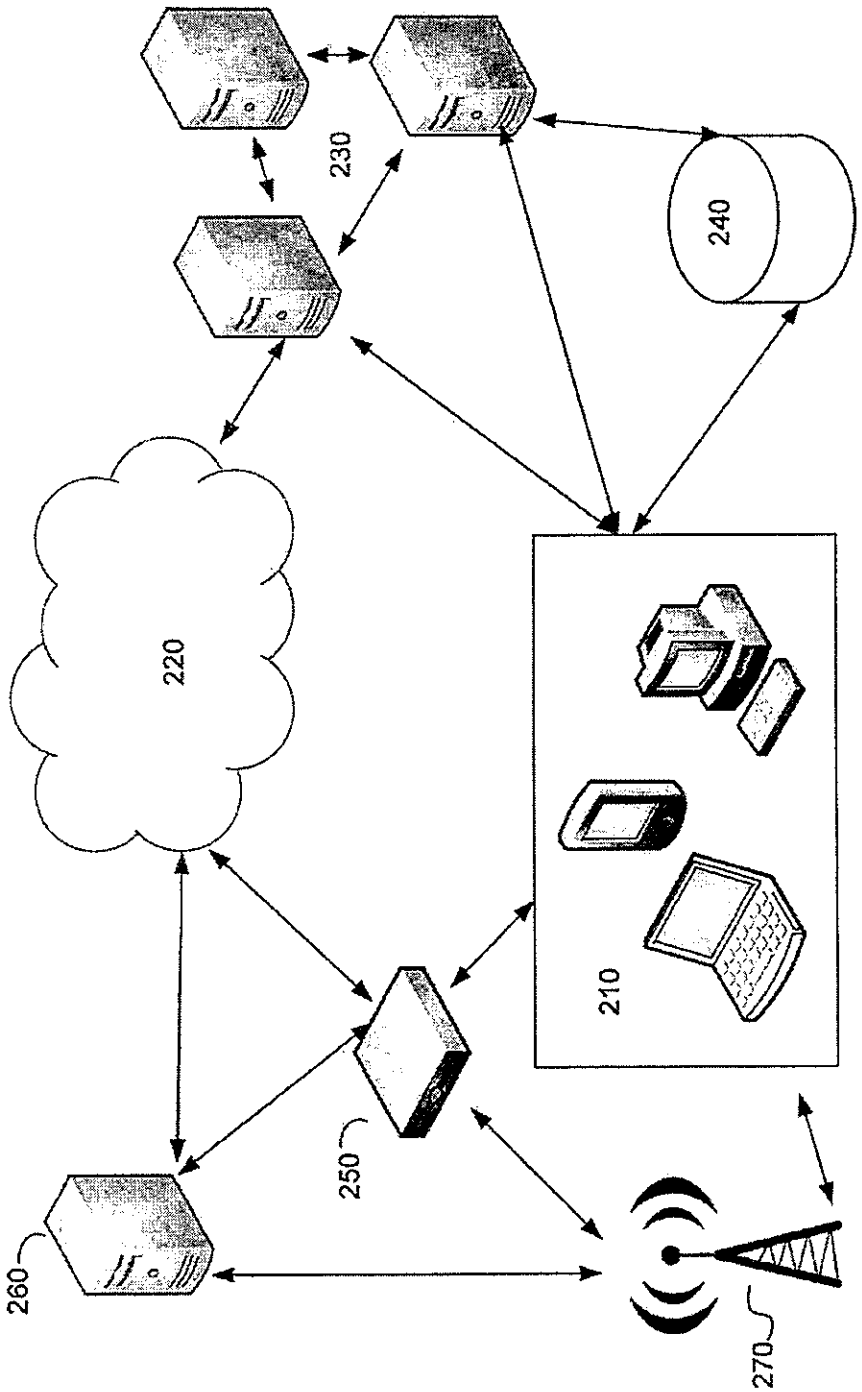

FIG. 2