

Abstract

5 A process for preparing an ester of (meth)acrylic acid or a derivative thereof comprises reacting (meth)acrylic acid or a derivative thereof with glycerol carbonate at a reaction temperature of 10 to 150°C without a solvent in the presence of at least one enzyme catalyzing the esterification reaction.