

ABSTRACT

A VARIANT FORM OF URATE OXIDASE AND USE THEREOF

The present invention relates to genetically modified proteins with uricolytic activity. More specifically, the invention relates to proteins comprising truncated urate oxidases and methods for producing them, including PEGylated proteins comprising truncated urate oxidases.

[Figure 1]