(54) Title: AN OWNERSHIP DATA MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AND METHOD

(57) Abstract: A method of managing ownership data of at least one product is disclosed. The method includes a centralized server receiving at least one ownership-related request relating to the at least one product, creating at least one ownership record corresponding to the at least one ownership related request on the centralized server, and sending a request to a distributed ledger network to store a datum associated with the at least one ownership record on the distributed ledger network. A system including the centralized server in data communication with the distributed ledger network is also disclosed.
