(54) Title: SOLID LIPID MICROCAPSULES CONTAINING GROWTH HORMONE IN THE INNER SOLID CORE

(57) Abstract: The invention relates to growth hormone (GH) formulations having sustained-release properties, in particular human growth hormone (hGH) and methods for their preparation. The growth hormone formulations can be manufactured without denaturing of the protein and can conveniently be administered to the person in need thereof by using a conventional syringe via a needle having a small diameter.
