

ABSTRACT

A method for preventing deterioration of concrete, mortar or a high polymer material is disclosed wherein a metal selected from nickel, nickel oxide, Raney nickel, stabilized nickel, tin, tin oxide, cobalt oxide, stainless steel or mixtures thereof is incorporated into concrete, mortar or a high polymer material. Deterioration of concrete, mortar or a high polymer material, especially in sewage treatment facilities and the like can be prevented by incorporating such metal thereinto.

(Fig. 1a)

This Sheet Has Been Replaced

